

Stirling Rotary Club Begins Easter Seal Campaign In Stirling District

Dr. W. Hipwell Heads the Local Committee—Citizens Urged To Give Generously

Next to Christmas the biggest avalanche of mail to deluge Ontario's post offices comes this week when service clubs in Ontario mail their Easter Seals to everyone in this province asking them for help in their crippled children's work. Stirling Rotary Club takes part in this most worthy project and appeals to all citizens of Stirling and district to give and give generously — to this annual appeal.

Every service and activity — such as camping, nursing, treatment clinics, transportation, corrective surgery and research is heavily dependent upon the contributions resulting from the Easter Seal campaign, and this year no less than $875,000 will do the job efficiently for Ontario's more than 15,000 handicapped children.

Last year the Ontario Society for Crippled Children, whose only annual appeal for funds is made during the Easter Seal campaign by 226 service clubs, carried out its biggest program in all its history. This year the number of crippled children have greatly increased because Ontario's swiftly growing population means hundreds of new cases each year.

No one knocks at your door to sell you Easter Seals. The entire campaign — the message of hope and opportunity for crippled children — is put squarely to you in a letter. You are asked to read it and if you think the cause worthy enough, return your contribution in the pink envelope.

The organization that cares for this great number of children is amazingly small. A tightly knit office staff at headquarters in Toronto, a score of highly trained nurses, a corps of volunteer doctors and an army of public spirited citizens, who give freely of their time. The result is a volume of service out of all proportion to the money spent in the work.

This work takes several forms. There is nursing service, made up of 27 graduate nurses, each of whom has taken a special post-graduate course on orthopaedic nursing which qualifies them as orthopaedic nursing consultants.

These nurses visit the homes of handicapped children, teach the parent how to administer therapy treatment, or direct a child to medical attention.

Five summer camps this year will give a three week holiday to more than 1,200 children who would otherwise have no such holiday because of their inability to attend conventional camps. This is the biggest camping programme of any single political area in the world, and its importance is that it not only gives a holiday, but also teaches children who are often embarrassed by handicaps, to care for themselves and get along with other youngsters.

Clinics for examination of children in areas far from major hospital centres are also organized and attended by top medical specialists. If children need hospitalization, this is provided on special advice, and local doctors co-operate in providing treatment at home.

With the opening of the 15th annual Easter Seal campaign this week, there will be thousands of service club men and women working for a better future for Timmy and all his pals. Your contribution to the Easter Seal campaign is needed.

Stirling-Rawdon District High School To Present Musical Play

The usual Spring project of the Stirling-Rawdon District High School takes the shape this year of the rather large undertaking of the production of a full-length three-act musical play, "The Boy Friend" by Sandy Wilson.

"The Boy Friend" is a witty, stylish cartoon of the Jazz Age. A London (England) hit, it came over to the U.S.A. and won similar enthusiastic reaction when it opened at New York's Royale Theatre in September, 1954. Besides its uniquely funny style, it also spoofs the mechanics of old-style operetta, using flapper-type music and lyrics.

The story is a Schubertian gem. The place is the French Riviera, where Polly (Linda Wellman) a millionaire's daughter, is attending Mme. Dubonnet's (Carole Burgess) fashionable finishing school for young ladies. She falls in love with Tony (Ronald Heath), a delivery boy, who, of course, turns out to be the son of Lord Brockhurst (David Bell). To hold his interest, Polly pretends that she is a working girl.

The time is roughly 1928. "The Boy Friend" first brought attention to Julie Andrews, who originally created the role of "Polly." It is a good-humoured, tuneful and affectionate valentine to the innocence and high spirits of the Charleston, Cloche hat, and short-skirt days.

The production, to be presented at the Stirling Theatre on March 17th, 18th and 20th, is in the hands of Mr. Edgar C. Hay-Ellis, with Helen Morrow and Marilyn Conley at the two pianos, Joan Fraser and Harold Searles looking after the choreography and Mrs. Gordon Bailey and her team of artists dealing with the scenery etc.

We are assured that this is a show worth seeing — even though you may have seen it before.

R.V. Euchre Party Much Enjoyed

On Friday evening, February 24th, River Valley Women's Institute sponsored a euchre party at the school house and provided prizes and coffee. There were ten tables in play. Twenty-two visitors were in attendance from Stirling, Stockdale and Harold. The proceeds amounted to $8.40. The party was convoked by Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bush and their assistants.

The awards were as follows: Ladies' high, Mrs. F. C. Percival, Stirling; ladies' second, Mrs. John Forge, Stockdale; men's high, John Kane; men's second, James McDonnell; consolation, Miles McDonnell; special prizes, Mrs. John Kane and John Forge.

Refreshments were served and a social half hour enjoyed.

Arrests Made For Break-Ins Here

Two break-ins took place in Stirling on Sunday night last, where thieves entered the premises of McIntosh & Wells garage, Front St. E., and Morton's Body Shop, North St.

Entrance was gained by smashing a rear window at McIntosh & Wells, where the intruders attempted to pry open the safe. They also pried open the filing cabinets, but nothing was reported stolen.

At Morton's Body Shop entry was gained by breaking the glass in a rear door. Here again nothing was taken.

Chief of Police D. Ketcheson along with O.P.P. officers investigated the break-ins and three arrests have been made with a fourth pending. According to Chief Ketcheson the local break-ins followed a pattern used in robberies throughout the district. Carl Buck and Gordon J. Woodcock, Trenton, and Francis William Mills, Consecor, are the three in custody.

Girls' High School Basketball

(By Anne Reid)

The second of the two game, total point series between Brighton and Stirling took place in Brighton Thursday afternoon. The Stirling team hoped to maintain their seven point lead while Brighton wish to overtake it. The spectators were heard to say it was one of the fastest games they had ever seen.

However, the referees were on the spot and collected fouls as they saw fit.

The Brighton team took an early lead with a speed which astounded the Stirling crew. But Stirling's indomitable spirit came back so that when the final whistle blew the score was 33 to 29 in favour of Brighton, but with Stirling winning on total points by 3.

It was noted by all the Stirling group that the hospitality and friendliness of the Brighton team was one of the best ever encountered.

Lose To Albert College

Winning this series gave Stirling the right to meet Albert College, Belleville in the finals for the Bay of Quinte C.O.S.S.A. Remembering the height of last year's team from Albert, the Stirling seniors deeply wished these girls would have graduated. They hadn't! Despite this disadvantage the Stirling team went in the game on Monday night with a will to win. But this will wasn't quite enough and Albert defeated them by 6 points, the score being 42 to 36. In this game Anne Reid was high scorer with 18 points for Stirling.

On Wednesday night Albert College continued on their winning streak by defeating Stirling 42 to 35. Louise Harding was the high scorer for Stirling with 12 points. This gave Albert the right to represent Central and Southern Ontario at the C.O.S.S.A. in Whitby. Good luck.

Stirling Area Has 1254 Phones

The expansion of telephone facilities in Stirling during 1960 was typical of the situation across the territory served by The Bell Telephone Company of Canada. It was revealed in the company's 81st annual report issued this week. Last year's telephone construction programme of $208 million was the largest in the company's history, the report states, and 184,130 telephones were added to those in service.

In Stirling, evidence of the company's improvement and expansion programme was seen through the addition of some 35 telephones, bringing the total number in service here at year's end to 1,254, said R. S. O'Rourke, Bell manager for this region.

According to the report, net income totalled $53,511,907 for last year.

$3,228,329 higher than in 1959. Earnings per share amounted to $2.52 or four cents higher than in the previous year.

Dividends for the year totalled $2.20 a share, and surplus was increased by $6,072,867 to $52,732,735 or $2.47 a share.

Taxes totalled $64,731,000 or $5,449,000 more than in 1959.

Wages and salaries in 1960 totalled $159,028,668.

"Reflecting a slowing down in the national economic progress, revenues were only 7.5 percent higher than in 1959," the report states. "Expenses increased by 5.5 percent. This relationship points up the effectiveness of sustained cost control.

"The two major revenue components — local service and long distance service — each increased by 7.4 percent. Other revenues rose by 9.7 percent."

At the year's end, the number of shareholders was 171,288. Of these, 166,627 or 97.3 percent, reside in Canada and hold 92 percent of the stock. This is by far the largest body of Canadian shareholders in any Canadian company. The American Telephone and Telegraph Company now holds only 3 1/2 percent of the company's shares.

Of the company's total outstanding long term debt of $580 million, 88 percent has been raised in Canada.

The Canadian pulp and paper industry is one of the great enterprises of the world.

Brownies Hold Annual "Thinking Day" Ceremony

(By Brown Owl)

On Monday, February 20th the 1st Stirling Brownie Pack met for their annual Thinking Day Ceremony. This is the day, especially set aside to think of Guides and Brownies all over the world and to honour Lord Baden-Powell our beloved founder.

The meeting started with a lively game, then each six retired to its own corner to mark attendance. There was a knock on the door, the District Commissioner, Mrs. Robt. Luery, had arrived. She was greeted by two Brownies who brought her to Brown Owl. The Brownies formed a circle around the Commissioner and welcomed her with the Grand Howl.

This year we chose to visit Holland for our Thinking Day meeting. So all the Brownies donned a Dutch cap she had made the previous week at the meeting and sailed away on the magic carpet to Holland. A group of Brownies set up the toadstool to show how we think Baden-Powell built up Scouting and Guiding. First he laid down the groundwork (mat under toadstool). Upon this we built a solid foundation (base of toadstool, the Law and the Promise). The cap of the toadstool is the joy and happiness that will come from this foundation. The Owl is what the Brownie learns, wisdom and understanding and to lend a hand to others.

The Brownie Song was sung, "We're the Brownies Glad and Gay and Gay, Come From Holland Far Away." Each sang their six song, followed by the Motto and the Brownie Prayer. Fairy Gold (money) was collected in a wooden shoe. This money goes to our World Friendship Fund to help Guides and Brownies all over the world. After several games and a dance we formed our Pow-Wow Ring. In the centre was a round cake

— the world — topped with five candles. Around the outside were small cupcakes topped with flags representing the different countries who have Girl Guides and Brownies.

Tawn Owl (Mrs. Baker) told a very interesting story, "Two Little Dutch Shoes." Brown Owl explained the World Flag and spoke briefly on Guiding. There are 35 countries who have Girl Guides or Brownies and we total over two million. Baden-Powell lived to be 84 years old. His last message was — Your business in life is being happy and to make others happy, to bring happiness into the world by making happier homes. Brown Owl then lit a candle from The Guide Trefoll and each six in turn lit her candle from the trefoll candle for a different part of the world saying — Brownies think of your sister Brownie in Africa for them I light this candle of friendship and we send them our Thinking Day greetings.

The Commissioner then lit the centre candle for Brownies in Canada and our Chief Scout and Guide, Lord and Lady Baden-Powell. All the Brownies sang "Brownies Over All the World We Send Our Love To You."

The meeting closed with a Thinking Day prayer by Snowy Owl (Mrs. Frank Harding) and Tops. Each Brownie took home a cupcake as a reminder of this Thinking Day, February 22nd.

"This," wrote John Ruskin, "is the true nature of home — it is the place of peace, the shelter, not only from all injury, but from all terror, doubt and division."

Electricity is one of the cheapest and most efficient sources of power available. The average cost of electricity to urban residential customers in Ontario is only 1.13 cents a kilowatt-hour, a rate which is among the lowest in the world.

Annual Meeting Belleville Presbyterial W.M.S. Held At St. Paul's Church

St. Paul's United Church, Stirling, was host for the annual meeting of the Belleville Presbyterial Woman's Missionary Society on Monday and Tuesday, February 20th and 21st. The executive met Monday afternoon to review the yearly reports.

The President, Mrs. Clarence Holmes, opened the meeting with worship. She announced the dates of the Conference Branch meeting as March 21, 22 and 23 in Cobourg and Mesdames Stoneburg, Hughes, May and Williams were appointed as delegates. April 24th to 27th were set as dates for the conference with Miss Marion Thompson, Field Secretary, in the various sections throughout the Presbyterial. Mrs. Holmes thanked all who had assisted her as President during the past three years. The meeting closed with the hymn, "Guide Me O Thou Great Jehovah" and the ladies of St. Paul's W.M.S. served supper.

Monday

Evening Meeting

While the groups were arriving for the evening session, Mrs. Geo. Greer, Trenton, and Miss Hettie Unger, of Picton, entertained the C.G.I.T. and Explorer groups with suitable films on Angola. Springbrook C.G.I.T. led in the evening worship. Mrs. Percy MacMullen, R.R. 3 Stirling, presented the literature pertaining to the younger groups. St. Paul's Girls' Double Trio, under the leadership of Mrs. H. West, provided a pleasant interlude of song.

Miss Kate Rutherford, B.A., of Angola, was introduced by the president and she told of her work with the people of Angola. She said that some boys and girls come from as far away as 300 miles just to attend the church schools to learn to read and write, learn of home economics, agriculture and the Bible. In the boarding schools they go to school half a day and work for part of their keep the other half of the day. There is Currie Institute for boys and the Dondi School for the girls. They teach leaders to become pastors and evangelists to their own people in the villages. The missionaries supervise the village schools in their exams. There are short courses of two months' duration for girls in home economics and they are taught sewing, simple cooking, and health. Their diet is a simple one and greatly lacking in proteins. Meat and fish are expensive and there is little milk available. Miss Rutherford closed her talk by answering questions put to her by the girls.

Miss Hettie Unger, Candidate Secretary, addressed the audience on the subject of "Vocation or Vacation," putting forth the vocations available in the work of the church and the many interesting countries where these vocations may be practised.

The President of the Bay of Quinte Conference Branch W.M.S., Mrs. B. H. Soper, brought greetings on behalf of the Branch, telling the story of the Bamboo Tree. Rev. P. J. Hommersen, Stirling, pronounced the benediction.

Tuesday Session

Mrs. C. Holmes presided for the morning session and was presented with a corsage by Mrs. O. Bertrand on behalf of the W.M.S. of Mrs. Holmes' own church, Holloway United in Belleville. Napanee Trinity Federation were in charge of the opening worship with Mrs. F. Mills, Miss Aylesworth, Mrs. G. Fresque and Mrs. Wm. Pace taking part. Mrs. Pace led the Bible study, telling of a plane crash wherein a little boy survived, with a survival kit close at hand, but nearly starved before rescue came. She said we all have a survival kit close at hand — the Bible — the Bread of Life — but many souls are starving.

Mrs. Percy MacMullen, Stirling, displayed the literature available. Mrs. R. G. Coulter gave the treasurer's report indicating that $1200.00 was available this year over and above the allocation and will be used for Building Advance. The amount was voted to be used half for work among the Canadian Indians at Moose Mountain and the other half for RAVEMCO, the promotion of audio-visual aids. Mrs. H. M. Davis, of Belleville, Christian Stewardship Secretary, presented the allocation for 1961 and the new GBA projects to work for. Mrs. S. MacDonald, of Stirling, sang a beautiful solo.

Mrs. Soper's address was entitled "Missions and the Ecumenical Movement," explaining that the word "ecumenical" meant the whole inhabited world. She asked how many would walk twelve miles to purchase a Bible, and urged our support in providing Christian literature for the Africans who are learning to read as the Communists are providing very attractive literature of their own for them and giving it freely.

Mrs. Garnett Doobs, of Belleville, who is President of Conference W.A. told of the highlights of the General Council of the United Church of Canada held in Edmonton. She made an urgent plea for recruits to the work of the church. Mrs. H. M. Davis led in a beautiful memorial service for 51 deceased members of the Woman's Missionary Society. The meeting adjourned to the Oddfellows Hall for dinner, during which time greetings were brought from the Belleville Presbyterial by Rev. H. M. Davis, from the Woman's Association of Belleville Presbyterial by Mrs. Frank Davidson, from St. John's Anglican Church W.A. by Mrs. G. B. Noble, from St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church W.M.S. by Mrs. B. Reid, and from St. Paul's W.M.S. by Mrs. C. Lansing.

Afternoon Session

For the afternoon session Mrs. Geo. Carlisle, Stirling, presided. The opening worship was conducted by Wellington W.M.S. under the leadership of Mrs. G. Stoneburg, Mrs. B. Cronk and Mrs. H. Pierson, having the theme of "Brotherhood." The missionary, Miss Rutherford, entitled her address, "Into All the World Together," which is the theme of this year's study. She said, "our mission is one — bringing the people of the world to our Lord." All denominations are working together in the mission fields together with native leaders. The policy now is to go only where we are invited to help and the calls are still many and the workers few. The start of the missions in Angola was made by the American Congregational Church assisted by the Canadian Congregational. However, on the fields denominations are forgotten and all work under the Church of Christ in Angola. Portuguese is the official language but the native tongues must also be learned. She finished her talk by saying that we must go into all the world together, for we do not know how long the doors may be open to us and we are a privileged people.

Mrs. H. West and Mrs. H. Philp, accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Pyear, presented a lovely interlude of music. Mrs. B. H. Soper told of the new organization, the United Church Women. Mrs. Maurice Clancy, Holloway, presented 35 Mission Band awards.

Mrs. O. Bertrand extended thanks to all who had helped to make the meeting a success. Mrs. Leon Ward reported for the Nominating Committee and called the new officers forward for Mrs. Soper to install them. Mrs. G. Doobs came forward and made a presentation to Mrs. Holmes, the retiring president, on behalf of the W.A. of Holloway Church. Rev. P. J. Hommersen, B.A., B.D., pronounced the benediction.

Two college presidents were comparing experiences. "When I retire," declared one, "I would like to be superintendent of an orphan's home. Then I wouldn't get letters from parents."

"That's not a bad ambition," replied the other, "but when I retire I want to become the warden of a penitentiary. The alumni never willingly comes back to visit."

TURNIPS

There they are, their round shiny faces twinkling up at you beneath royal purple or bronze coloured mantles. Makes you want to pick up one right away! Well do just that for they're a good buy these days and as the colours indicate, the turnip is a prince of a fellow — mild, full of vitamins and a good mixer.

Turnips go to a party — cut into slim fingers, fancy curls and minute triangles. Arranged around a little silver bowl of whipped sour cream for dunking and eating, they are a crunchy and delicious relish.

Turnips go in the salad — shredded, fine and tossed with cabbage, celery, and dressing — a reminder of the warm sunny fields from whence they came.

Turnips go in the soup — the crisp cubes added to vegetable or barley soup perk up its colour and taste.

Turnips go in the stew — cut into chunks to improve the food meaning of meat stew and add to its homespun appeal.

Turnips go round the roast — sliced parboiled for 10 minutes; oven browned in fat around the meat for 45 minutes — never a more edible garnish on any platter.

Turnips to on the dinner plate — creamy and golden, neat round balls. Boil sliced turnip in small amount of salted water until tender, 20 to 25 minutes. Drain and mash. Mellow with butter. Season to taste with pepper and nutmeg; parsley, brown sugar, or grated cheese. Dish up with ice cream scoop to form balls.

The Consumer Section in Ottawa suggests you give your taste buds a treat and try their two recently tested recipes for Turnip Soup and Turnip Puff.

Cream of Turnip Soup

- 2 cups shredded raw turnip
- 1 cup boiling water
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

- 3 tablespoons butter
- 1/2 cup finely chopped onion
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 3 cups milk
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper

Cook turnip in boiling salted water until tender, about 10 minutes. Melt butter in top of double boiler, add onion and saute over direct heat until transparent but not brown, about 3 minutes. Remove from heat, add flour and stir until well blended, then add milk. Cook over direct heat, stirring constantly until mixture begins to thicken. Place over hot water and continue cooking 5 minutes longer, stirring occasionally. Add turnip, cooking liquid and pepper to cream sauce, then heat. Makes about 5 cups.

Turnip (Rutabaga) Puff

- 3 cups hot mashed turnip
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 eggs, well beaten
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 1 tablespoon brown sugar (optional)
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1-3 cup buttered cracker or bread crumbs (optional)

Combine turnip and butter. Add eggs and beat thoroughly. Add flour, sugar, baking powder, salt and pepper then mix until well blended. Turn into a greased casserole. If desired, top with buttered crumbs. Bake in a moderately hot oven (375 degs. F.) until top is lightly browned, about 25 minutes. Six servings.

Tower silos can present a hazard about this time of year as silage is removed. If frozen silage isn't removed as the surface lowers, a sudden thaw could send large pieces tumbling down on top of the person working in the silo. He suggests removing frozen material with a pick as you move down the silo.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

A DETERMINED WIDOW

A pretty young woman called to see me this morning, chin firm and eyes snapping.

"I am a delegation of one," she told me, "to get you to write something in your column about what the government is doing to widows."

I grinned. It seems that anyone who wants to blast the government thinks of me as a natural ally. I am not as anti-government as some people think, but I do try to complain from time to time when I think it will do the most good.

"What," I asked her, "is the government doing to widows?"

She told me her story. Apparently, if a woman loses her husband, and he has arranged that she will receive her legacy in the form of an annuity or a pension, the government clamps down with a death duty tax that really hurts. The widow is not taxed just on what she and her husband have put into the pension; the tax is based on her entire life interest in it. If she is young, that is likely to work out at a pretty high figure. As a result, the widow might have to use all the payments in the first year or so to pay the government.

"Income tax would be enough," the widow said, "without this ridiculous tax on the whole life interest in the pension. It is a disgrace in a country that calls itself Christian!"

"Look," I said, "it sounds wrong to me, too, but I'm no tax expert. Why don't you write to Mr. Fleming?"

She firmed her chin even more. "Don't worry about that," she said. "I have already written to Mr. Diefenbaker. And you don't have to be a tax expert to know it is silly on the face of it. The trouble is that a woman doesn't know about it until her husband dies and then she finds out that instead of helping her, the government adds another burden. I want all the women to know about this and that's where you come in. All the women I know read your column in our paper every week."

That sold me. I called a banker friend and asked him if it is true that widows are taxed on the capitalized value of their life interest in a pension. He told me it was true and that it was a darn shame. "To escape it, a man would have to move to the States or some other country before dying. I've often wondered why women don't launch a protest."

"She has," I said.

"She's an army with flashing eyes," I told him. "And she's just getting started."

"More power to her," said the banker. "But how many widows are there?"

I told him that every woman is a potential widow, and if they all start writing to the Prime Minister, or snapping fiery eyes at him, something has to give! We'll see.

R. Valley W.M.S.

Mrs. John Kane was hostess for the February meeting of the River Valley W.M.S. with an attendance of eleven members, four visitors and five children.

The new President, Mrs. Roy Bush, opened the meeting with the hymn, "Lead Kindly Light." Inspirational thoughts for the day, followed by the first prayer of the W.M.S. given February 17th, 1932, were given by the President. All repeated the Lord's Prayer.

Everyone was greatly pleased when Mrs. Roy Bush consented to be the President for 1961 and showed their appreciation by a hearty clap of the hands.

Two cards were sent during the month and two hospital and twelve home calls were made.

Preparations for the Presbyterian and the World's Day of Prayer were discussed. The offering was received and dedicated.

Mrs. Phil Conley was in charge of the afternoon's programme which opened with the call to worship. Mrs. Roy Irven read the Scripture lesson taken from John 1: 1-18. Mrs. Ralph Utman read the commentary and Mrs. Conley led the group in prayer. The hymn, "O Day of Rest and Gladness" was sung, followed by the benediction.

The theme of the programme was "Light and Love." Mrs. Phil Conley read "Grandma's Valentine." Several familiar hymns were sung which were enjoyed by all. All answered the roll call with a Scripture verse and a sentence prayer.

Mrs. Glenn Bush gave two chapters of the study book on "Old Nations and New Problems." The task of the whole church is to bring the gospel to the whole world.

Mrs. Alex Bush read the poem, "Take Time To Think." Mrs. Roy Bush gave the topic, "The Children of Light," which proved very interesting. Miss Marilyn Conley delighted all with a musical selection. All enjoyed a Bible contest. Mrs. Ernest Carr read a story of St. Valentine which told that the very best gift of all is love. The closing hymn "More Love To Thee," brought this very inspirational programme to a close.

Dainty refreshments served by the hostess and co-hostesses Mrs. Alex Bush and Mrs. R. Holland were enjoyed. Mrs. Ralph Utman moved a vote of thanks to all.

Mrs. Allyn Finkle Hostess To Pine Grove W.I.

The February meeting of Pine Grove Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Allyn Finkle with 14 members and 2 visitors present.

Mrs. Chas. Ross, President, opened the meeting with the singing of the Opening Ode, followed with the Mary Stewart Collect in unison. Roll call was answered by "School Memories."

Several members contributed to the Pennies for Friendship. Mrs. Chas. Ross was appointed delegate to the President's Conference in Guelph in May. Mrs. Harry Coulter, Mrs. Wm. Slater and Mrs. Ivan Clare volunteered to assist the Institute at the extension service, "Hospitality Foods," which Pine Grove Institute is sponsoring at the home of Mrs. Chas. Mayall, February 28th and March 1st.

The conveners of Standing Committees reported. Mrs. Frank Finkle gave highlights from the Home and Country magazine. Mrs. Searles distributed the Canadian Association of Consumers bulletins. Mrs. Farley Lindenfield, Mrs. Don Irish and Mrs. Allyn Finkle were appointed to convene the social evening planned for Tuesday, February 21st.

Mrs. Garnet Searles gave the current events with local events given by the members. The members were asked to help with the radio and T.V. survey at the March meeting.

Programme

Mrs. Fred Campbell, convener of Education, presided over the programme. Mrs. Wm. Slater gave a reading "Art of Reading." Mrs. Harry Coulter read "Mother and Story Hour." Mrs. David Little and Mrs. Ivan Clare favoured with a duet, "Flow Gently Sweet Afton." Mrs. Alex Tanner read "They'll Be True."

Mrs. Campbell then gave a paper on "Education." We are constantly hearing of the value of education over radio, television and in newspapers and magazines. The training and guidance in our schools and colleges, the love and warmth in our homes, the give and take in our places of work, the hope and faith in our places of worship, tolerance and patience with our fellow man are all part and parcel of the educational process and deserve recognition at all times. A child will have a much happier and easier time when starting school if he has learned to accept necessary restrictions and rules and has learned to play with other children. In other words education begins long before the children reach school age. The school can supplement but the home is still mainly responsible for the development of good character and religious education.

After the singing of the National Anthem refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Gary Duzey.

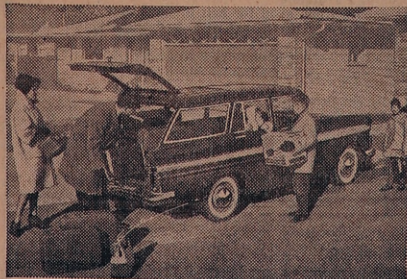

An elderly, wealthy man was interviewing an applicant for the job as his personal valet. "You may have trouble with me," he said. "I have a wooden leg, a glass eye, an artificial arm, false teeth and I wear a toupee."

"That won't bother me," replied the applicant. "I used to be on the assembly line at General Motors."

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

FREEZING MIGHT HURT FARM CHEMICALS

If you bought extra insecticide or weed killer last year and you have it stored below freezing temperatures this winter, watch out. The chemical might not do the job it's supposed to do this year.

"The active chemicals are liable to freeze and crystallize out of the solution," cautions O.A.C. entomologist W. C. Allan. "Then they mightn't give a good insect kill. If you plan to buy more than you need in any one season, keep it from freezing." Botanists at the O.A.C. state that weed killers are liable to be ineffective too.

One chemical company reports this: A farmer bought a 50 gallon barrel of an insecticide and saved over a dollar per gallon because of the size of his purchase. He didn't use it all the first year, so the barrel sat out all winter underneath the gas storage tank. When spring came, he applied what was left to an old sod field and got extremely poor control.

RUST PREVENTATIVE — A NEW SUBSTITUTE FOR A MACHINE SHED?

To stop iron from rusting you have to eliminate both air and moisture. The material that will do the best job of protecting farm machinery is a soft film coating of petroleum base rust preventative "cut back" with a petroleum solvent; the material can be sprayed, brushed or dipped.

So says Bert Moggach, Ontario Department of Agriculture extension engineer. He says this type of compound is available in 1-gallon containers or 35-pound pails at a cost just over half that of multiple purpose greases.

"Since modern lubricating oils and greases contain rust inhibitors, the application of a light film of oil or grease will give temporary protection. The drawback is the short life of the film when it's exposed to moisture. Greases are hard to apply too and they're more expensive than rust proof inhibitors."

The best way to put the rust preventative on?

He suggests first cleaning the surface and then applying the material with a brush. Spray if it's a big job. Keep in mind that the material is usually thinned with naphtha; spraying should be done in a well-ventilated place away from any open flame. To remove the rust preventative use a petroleum solvent like kerosene. The kerosene can be brushed on and with a little agitation of the brush, the coating will wash off.

Machinery in covered storage will be protected for 3 to 5 years. When exposed to the weather, the coating should give protection for 2 to 3 years, providing any bad spots are retouched during the first year.

WHEAT SALE TO CZECHOSLOVAKIA

Sale of approximately 7.3 million bushels of wheat to Czechoslovakia was announced recently in the House of Commons by Agriculture Minister Alvin Hamilton.

The Minister said the wheat is to be shipped from St. Lawrence ports following the opening of navigation.

The agreement was made between the Canadian Wheat Board and KOOSPOL, the Czechoslovakian purchasing agency for foodstuffs.

The wheat will be purchased on a credit basis and, by agreement between the governments of Czechoslovakia and Canada, Export Credits Insurance has been provided to facilitate the sale.

Terms of payment are: ten percent cash at date of shipment; 30 percent payable one year later; 30 percent payable two years from date of shipment; and the remaining 30 percent three years from date of shipment.

The agreement calls for the purchase of 200,000 metric tons — about 7.3 million bushels — of Canadian No. 2 and No. 3 wheat, with a small amount of durum included.

The Canadian grain trade, said Mr. Hamilton, will act as agents of the Canadian Wheat Board and will negotiate individual contracts with the Czech purchasing agency.

WORLD SEED YEAR

Canada has joined the ranks of countries the world over in recognizing 1961 as "World Seed Year."

Agriculture Minister Alvin Hamilton announced that Canada is actively participating in the World Seed Year Campaign being sponsored by the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations.

The Minister also proclaimed March as "Good Seed Month." A concerted effort will be made during the month to improve the quality of seed being used by Canadian farmers.

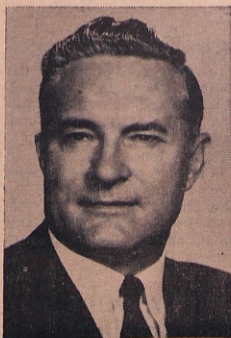

World Seed Year aims at focusing attention on the importance of using good seed of improved varieties. FAO directors have found that this is the most effective means of increasing food production. It brings immediate results at a relatively low cost.

Second objective is to stimulate all phases of seed improvement work, which includes plant breeding, variety testing, seed certification, seed testing and seed control work.

Canada's major contribution to the campaign is an international training course, which has already been held in 1959 and again last year. Twenty-two Colombo Plan students have investigated seed control, seed certification and plant research facilities, and the programme is continuing.

Along with the training course, an active educational programme is under way in Canada, coupled with publicity and promotional campaigns. All provinces and many organizations serving agriculture are co-operating in the national endeavor.

What Others Say

SUPPORT FOR PUB. PADRE

Operating on the principle that religious ministry is not bound by the walls of a temple, Rev. Arthur Packman left his pastorate near Belleville last October to become the padre of the pubs in Toronto.

It was a courageous decision that came out of the yearning of a devoted man to bring solace to lonely souls and help the wayward find the path to meaningful existence. The United Church of Canada has now decided to support this work by arranging for a special fund to which individuals and churches may contribute.

In the intervening months, Mr. Packman has demonstrated the high worth of his new ministry. His reports in The Telegram have focused attention on neglected areas that called for spiritual responsibility voluntarily undertaken.

What Mr. Packman has shown is that somebody cares about those who spend their days bereft of companionship longing for a connection with the source of community life.

There is no thoroughfare to the love of God except through the love of man. The early spiritual leaders illustrated this truth. At the same time, to be of use to people, to see them redeemed from misery is one of the most penetrating and abiding satisfactions of life. The padre of the pubs has such satisfaction and those who help him will have a rich share in it. —The Toronto Telegram.

CONSERVATION NEWS

HUNGARIAN PARTRIDGE EXTENDS ITS RANGE

The Hungarian partridge population, confined mainly to Wolfe Island, has been extending its range over the past two years. The birds have established themselves in the Hay Bay area and recently, have been found in Prince Edward County.

The "Hun", as he is known to all the upland game hunters, is a highly prized little game bird that was introduced into this country from Europe. Generally speaking, the "Hun" was only able to catch on in a comparatively small area in South Eastern Ontario. From this hardy strain, the birds are extending their range and are the only ones suited for this purpose. To go to the cost of trying to introduce "Huns" again where others have failed, would be a wasted effort. However, as this established population is expanding, the birds are meeting up with an obstacle they and we could well do without, and that is the poacher. Recently, Conservation Officer Claude Winters apprehended three men who had killed two "Huns" from a covey located in Prince Edward County. They were fined a total of $55.00 plus the loss of their guns.

Sportsmen in the Belleville and Picton areas have long awaited the arrival of the "Hun". They are there now and if given full protection through the closed season, this much sought-for game bird may exist and propagate whereby they will afford excellent sport in the future.

To be a sport, you must play a part. Help us in protecting the "Hun" for your future enjoyment.

University Women's Clubs of Belleville

Mr. Angus Mowat, a former librarian of the Belleville Corby Library, was the speaker at the monthly meeting of the University Women's Club of Belleville and district, held on February 16th in the Education Hall at the Belleville General Hospital.

Mr. Mowat gave a humorous and witty account of his recent visit to rural England. "I love the country and I loathe big cities," said Mr. Mowat, and in this trend he recaptured his and his family's enjoyable stay of three months in a game keeper's cottage on a farm near a small village called Hayfield.

Mr. Mowat said that they did do a little touring, visiting a few cathedrals and other places of interest, but they mostly stayed at their cottage and for those few months became part of that particular community and learned to appreciate their way of life. Incessant rain and fog; trained dogs rounding up sheep; a man keeping bees in the rain; suddenly having to drive on the left side of the road.

Such were the memories which helped him to recall the atmosphere and spirit of his stay in England.

Mr. Mowat said that the outstanding feature of even the smallest library he visited in England was the promptness with which a book, not on their shelves, would be procured without four or five days. This was made possible through their efficient regional and county library system. Mr. Mowat who was director of library services for Ontario from 1948 until his retirement last year, expressed the hope that a system similar to the English one would eventually be functioning in Canada.

The speaker was introduced by Miss N. Merry and thanked by Mrs. R. K. Jeffrey.

Before Mr. Mowat's talk, the business section of the meeting was conducted with Mrs. A. S. Lewis in the chair.

Physiotherapist To Serve Quinte Branch Canadian Arthritis And Rheumatic Society

Mr. Enos David, President of the Quinte Branch of the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society, has announced the appointment of Miss Margaret Millar as physiotherapist in charge of the mobile unit for the Quinte Area.

Miss Millar assumed her duties on February 9th. A native of the Union of South Africa, she comes with high recommendations and wide experience in the practice of her profession. She is a graduate of the Pretoria General Hospital's School of Physiotherapy in South Africa, and has served in several of the larger hospitals in the Union with specialized rheumatic disease departments.

Miss Millar had the unique experience on her arrival in Canada of coming in contact for the first time with snow.

"I have never seen snow in South Africa," she said, "and while my sports are tennis and badminton, I know I am going to love Canada and your winter sports."

In announcing the appointment, Mr. David stated that Belleville and district has been most fortunate in the allocation of Miss Millar to this branch. The demand for qualified physiotherapists throughout the various branches of the Society in Canada far exceeds the supply. Requests from many communities in Ontario for the establishment of C.A.R.S. branches are in abeyance pending the availability of trained personnel.

Speaking of the local situation Mr. David said that there was great need for a full-time physiotherapist. Based on the over-all picture of rheumatic diseases for the whole country, as contained in a government report, it would be safe to estimate that there are over one thousand citizens in the Quinte area suffering in some degree from one of the many forms of arthritis. Of these, 235 are totally or partially disabled. In addition to the great suffering and hardship to the families affected, arthritis is responsible for the loss in Canada of $75,000,000 annually in wages by afflicted workers.

The Quinte Branch of the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society services are available to all sufferers from arthritis and the rheumatic diseases on recommendation of the patient's physician. The physiotherapist works under the doctor and administers the treatment he prescribes. A nominal charge is made for the service, as is the case in all health agencies, but no one is denied these services if unable to pay.

Hastings Farm Management Club Hears Address

Father-Son Agreements was the topic for discussion at the February meeting of the Hastings County Farm Management Club which was held in the Masonic Hall, Stirling. As guest speaker for the evening, the Farm Management Club had Prof. Art Robertson of the Economics Department of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, speak on and discuss various phases of Father-Son Agreements.

Prof. Robertson pointed out that a few years ago when prices were somewhat better two families could possibly live on the income of the one farm at that time. However, as farm receipts have declined and expenses have increased it is becoming more doubtful whether or not one average farm could support two families and when considering a Father-Son Agreement, the parties concerned should give full consideration to what amount of money they are now actually making and whether or not two families could live on it. He pointed out that when there is sufficient income on the one farm, all parties concerned should be willing to co-operate, as he has seen many Father-Son Agreements fail due to small differences among the two families. He is now of the belief that if a farm family can gather together sufficient money to enable the son to purchase another farm with the help of a farm loan that this is possibly the better arrangement. The son is then on his own and if the farm is not too far a distance from the home place, he might be able to use the home equipment.

Prof. Robertson was appropriately thanked by the number of questions that the fathers and sons present asked of him.

It is hoped that by the time of the March meeting the club will be able to have the farm analysis reports so that they might be discussed at the meeting.

The President, Grant Richardson, expressed thanks to the speaker and mentioned that any interested in becoming members were most cordially invited to join, mentioning that the Account Book can be secured through the Agricultural Office, Stirling.

Phone Directories Distributed

Out with the old. In with the new. That's the word for Stirling telephone users, who are presently receiving the new edition of the telephone directory for this region.

And it is also the theme for the directory itself, for the familiar beige covers have been replaced by striking colored ones. The front cover again features a sketch of the Albert College in Belleville, while the back cover shows the full line of Bell Telephone's colored telephones in all nine shades, as well as the new Princess telephone. The content of the directory also reveals important number changes; for the first time, seven-figure numbers are listed.

Again this year, the distribution figures for the new book reflect the continuing growth of the region. A total of 36,685 copies are being mailed to customers throughout the area this year, an increase of 2,480 from the initial distribution of 34,205 for the last directory.

Of the total, 1,250 copies are being mailed to customers in Stirling.

R. S. O'Rourke, Bell Telephone manager for this region, pointed out that the new volume is effective immediately, and urged telephone users to discard their old books.

He also suggested that customers bring their "Blue Book of Telephone Numbers" and other personal lists up-to-date by checking them against the new directory. "By doing so they will avoid wrong numbers and unnecessary calls to Information," he stated.

"With a single stroke of the brush," said the teacher, while taking his class through the art gallery, "Joshua Reynolds could change a smiling face into a frowning one."

"So can my mother," said a small boy.

The Anglican minister had been promoted and that night his young son asked his mother:

"If Daddy is now a Canon, am I a son-of-a-gun?"

SPECIAL MEETING!

Re Cobalt Bullets

I'd like you to join us at a special get-together of ranchers, dairymen and farmers in this area to discuss an important problem common to all — "poor-doing" animals. I have arranged for an authority to show you some unique and amazing new ideas in animal nutrition that can stop unthriftiness in your herd or flock.

You'll learn how a group of beef animals doing so poorly that a few died, caught up with the rest of the herd within 4 weeks... how a dairy herd on the National Honour Roll increased milk production by 12 percent... how a ewe on her last legs regained frisky health in a matter of days!

This should be a bang-up meeting, and I'm looking forward to seeing you there!

Village Council In Lengthy Session; Bylaw To Control Wrecking Yards

Delegation Against Further Expansion of Wrecking Yard — New Signs Needed

Any of the old type square "stop" signs in use in the Village will not be legal after August 1st next, according to a communication from G. F. French of the Municipal Roads Branch, Ontario Department of Highways, tabled at the regular meeting of Village Council on Monday night. This type of sign is to be replaced by a 36" red octagonal stop sign. The matter was left in the hands of the Street Committee.

Reeve C. E. Bateman presided and was supported by all members of Council.

Police Chief Doug Ketcheson presented his report, which was received on motion of Councillors Chambers and Anderson.

To Remove Trees

Harry Francis, John St., addressed Council regarding the removal of two trees in front of his residence. According to Mr. Francis about one-third of the trees was on Village property and on motion of Councillors Chambers and Jones the Village agreed to reimburse Mr. Francis with one-third of the cost of their removal.

Correspondence was tabled from Mather Associates, consulting engineers on the Henry Street Bridge, with a breakdown of the cost of the structure; Canada Cement Co. relative to an account for cement; Sprague & Cameron, re sale of property in the Village; Belleville Chamber of Commerce, re list of industries in Village; Hisey & Barrington, re extensions to present sewer system on Elizabeth and James Streets; Lower Trent River Conservation Authority, advising Council of meeting in Warkworth on March 29th; Ontario Water Resources Commission, re steps taken to warn skaters on the lagoon; Ontario Department of Municipal Affairs, re remodelling of the Clerk's office and Police office under the Winter Works Programme; and Board of Transport Commission, re opposition against the CNR application to abandon passenger service on the local railway line.

On motion of Councillors Jones and Anderson, Councillor R. W. Philp was appointed delegate to the meeting of the Lower Trent Conservation Authority.

The purchase of the Revised Statutes of Ontario at a cost of $45.00 for the municipal office was authorized on motion of Councillors Anderson and Jones.

Reeve Bateman reported that he received frequent inquiries for use of the Council Chambers by various organizations and asked Council for direction in the matter. On motion of Councillors Jones and Philp it was decided to restrict the use of the Council Chambers to Council only.

Messrs. Don Williams, W. Arbuckle, C. E. West and Dr. P. Briggs waited upon Council regarding the probable expansion of the Stirling Auto Wreckers. Don Williams stated that as property owners in a residential area, members of the delegation were concerned with any expansion of the wrecking yard. It lowered the value of adjacent property and provided excellent grounds for appealing assessments. Most communities have bylaws governing such businesses, stated Mr. Williams. Other members of the delegation spoke in like manner and felt it was somewhat of an eyesore.

Mr. Woodbeck, who was present, stated the lots purchased from Jack Hamilton on the north side of Wellington Street were his personally and not Stirling Auto Wreckers, and none of his property bordered on the properties of members of the delegation. He also stated that he had tried fencing the property, but it proved almost impossible to erect an 8 ft. board fence that would stand against strong winds for any length of time. He stated he had planted a number of trees which would in time act as a fence around the lot. He had operated the business 22 years and had converted what was formerly a bramble patch

Boy Scout Paper Drive

The Stirling Boy Scouts will be picking up paper on Saturday, March 11th. So folks, have your papers out early as they have to have the load to Trenton by noon because of twelve o'clock closing.

The boys need the paper now as they are planning on sending two boys to the Canadian Jamboree, which will be held in Ottawa next July.

The troop has never had to ask for any help in sending boys to Jamborees. Last year they sent two boys, for whom the troop paid $150.00. This year they will pay the camp fee for each boy, which is $55.00, so let's get behind the boys and put out the paper.

98th Anniversary

Congratulations are extended to Mrs. Jane Munro, Wellington St., who observed the 98th anniversary of her natal day on Wednesday, March 8th. Despite her age Mrs. Munro enjoys comparatively good health and gets about in a manner that belies her years.

Midgets Eliminate Wellington 4-2

Playing at Picton Arena on Saturday night Stirling Midgets ousted Wellington from the play-offs with a 4-2 victory in a well-played game.

The locals took a three to one lead in the first period with Donohoe, Bolte and Mason scoring, while McNeil counted for Wellington. Wrightman got the lone counter of the second stanza for Stirling to make it 4-1 and McNeil got his second goal of the game early in the final period.

into a tax-producing property for the Village. He agreed that Council had the authority to regulate such a business but he would strongly oppose any move to legislate him out of business at the present site.

Bylaw Given Readings

After consultation with Mr. Woodbeck, Council went into committee of the whole on Bylaws with Reeve Bateman in the chair and gave first and second reading to Bylaw No. 608 to regulate use of any land in the Village for wrecking yards. The gist of the bylaw is that Stirling Auto Wreckers will not be permitted to expand beyond land now used for the existing business.

Payment of $50.00 to F. R. Mallory, former Clerk, for work the first week of January, was authorized by Council.

Road Superintendent F. Broekema reported on work done on the streets. He also stated some bulldozing was required at the Village dump.

The following accounts were passed for payment:

Preparations for the High School's production of "The Boy Friend" are moving apace. All the loose strings are being brought together. A new back-drop being painted by Lyle Couch, Audrey Stapley and Brent Gray under the direction of Mrs. G. Bailey, is giving the stage a 'new look'; students of Grade XI, under Mr. Farmer, are building certain stage props; the dancing chorus under Harold Sarles and Joan Fraser are kicking up their heels in earnest; the principals of the cast and the singing chorus are busy getting their routines, lines and lyrics perfect; Mrs. Francis Lyons and Miss DeCarlo are working on the decor; the orchestra, composed of Helen Morrow and Marilyn Conley on the two pianos, Gerard Ryan on the saxophone, Mr. Maurice Bell on the banjo and Major Fraser on the drums, is practising hard; Mr. Bruce Gledinning and Gerald Malloy are seeing to the public address system; Jean Tompkins and Allen Fletcher are busy with ticket sales; in fact, all are moving rapidly towards the climax of the presentation of this delightful musical on Friday, Saturday and Monday, March 17th, 18th and 20th at the Stirling Theatre.

Be sure to get your tickets now. All the best seats are being sold very quickly. See our advertisement in the Coming Events column.

By the courtesy of Radio Station CJBQ, Belleville, a preview of this production will be broadcast on Sunday, March 12th following the World Hockey Game. Remember to switch on your radio at that time, and keep it tuned to CJBQ — 800 on your dial.

Have 3-Goal Lead Against Norwood

Stirling Juveniles will take a three-goal lead into the second game against Norwood on Saturday night as a result of their 6-3 victory in the Belleville Memorial Arena last night. Despite the inclemency of the weather there was a fair crowd to witness rather a dull game. Both goalies played star games, but the locals played below their accustomed form.

For the locals Gary Wright led the scorers with three, while Donnan, G. Hagerman and Noble got singletons. Delaney, Thompson and Fife counted for the losers.

The annual meeting will be held April 6th when all officers are asked to give their reports and dues are to be paid. The closing card party will be March 17th under the convenship of Mrs. Ernest Carr and her assistants on the St. Patrick theme. Plans were made to lay a new floor in the school kitchen and do some other essential items. "The Pennies for Friendship" jar was passed around the group.

Programme

Mrs. Roy Irvin opened the Historical programme with a poem and a message re Stoney Creek and Adelaide Hoodless. Mrs. Jack Bush gave a resume of local current events. Mrs. Percy MacMullen contributed a poem "The Coming of the Pilgrims." Mrs. E. C. Hay-Elis gave a very informative paper on the theme "Canada Today and Yesterday."

The roll call centred on "Remembrance of your Grandparents was well answered."

Mrs. Roy Bush gave a synopsis dealing with "Horse and Buggy Days." Mrs. John Kane read a poem, "The Cross Roads Store." Mrs. Ernest Carr read an article on "Old Fashioned Rocking Chairs." The convener closed with a poem and a historic contest.

The hostess and lunch conveners served refreshments. Mrs. Percy MacMullen voiced thanks for hospitality, programme and lunch.

Eggleton Mission Band

The February meeting of Eggleton Mission Band was held last Friday afternoon at the school with an attendance of 27 pupils and 3 adults.

The President, Dianne Prest, presided over a programme which she and Sheila Clarke had prepared and opened with the call to worship.

Earlier the worship centre had been set up at the front of the school by Carl Danford, Mary Jones and Judy Johnson. The picture in the background showed a globe and faces of children from many lands.

The opening hymn was "Stand Up, Stand Up Jesus" with Lois Danford as pianist. Following this all repeated in unison the Mission Band Purpose and the Lord's Prayer. The Scripture Reading from the 13th chapter of 1st Corinthians was read by Sheila Clarke.

A lovely poem, "The Builder" was read by Beverley Stapley. Eddie Stapley gathered the offering which was dedicated with the singing of one verse of "We Give Thee But Thine Own."

The next meeting is to be held at the school on March 17th. Kenneth Danford and Glenn Stapley were appointed to prepare the programme. Mrs. Fitchett and Grant Reid offered to bring lunch.

A reading, "Our Bible," was given by Lois Danford.

The leader, Mrs. Maurice Clancy, took charge. She showed the pupils the six year award certificate which had been presented to Eggleton Mission Band. Mrs. Clancy then told in story form the chapter from the study book, "The Peddler's Call." The boy, Javad in the story lived in Iran. One day a peddler visited the village, selling soap to the women. He said soap would cleanse their bodies but the books he had, Bibles, testaments, small books of the Gospels could cleanse their hearts. Javad wanted a book so much that his mother gave him enough coins to purchase the Gospel Books.

The peddler in the story was really a colporteur — a man sent out to travel from place to place in countries like Iran to sell and distribute Bibles. The chapter in the study book was written to assist our boys and girls to understand the great work being done in spreading the Gospel message.

A short work period was enjoyed with the junior pupils finishing their bookmarks and the senior pupils taking part in a word game. Carol Danford and Wayne McMullen distributed the World Friends papers. The President thanked the programme and lunch conveners and all taking part on the programme. The meeting was dismissed with a prayer by Mrs. Fitchett.

Chocolate macaroons and home-made fudge candy was served by the conveners Beverley Stapley and Lloyd Clancy.

SOUR CREAM

Pasteurized cream with approximately 18 percent butter fat is especially suited for cooking purposes and table use. It is generally available from dairies and dairy counters of local stores. Sour cream has the consistency of custard and tangy flavor produced by the culture or starter used in the souring process.

Sour cream has many delicious uses; for example it may be used in recipes for quick breads, cookies and gingerbread. It is good as a sauce over asparagus, broccoli, cauliflower, beets, turnip and squash. Sour cream blends well with soft cream cheese and seasonings for a nippy dip with potato chips. A dollop of whipped sour cream on a bowl of steaming soup not only garnishes but gives character to an otherwise ordinary meal starter. It serves the same purpose for fruit desserts, compotes, cobbles and pies.

The Consumer Section in Ottawa cautions about adding sour cream to hot cooked foods like vegetables, soups and desserts. The caution: add sour cream to hot food just before serving and reheat quickly over low heat, stirring constantly. The reason: the cream will curdle if the dish is left standing too long before serving.

Here is a recipe for potatoes and sour cream from publication 1058: Potatoes. This booklet contains some 50 potato recipes and is available free from Information Division, Canada Department of Agriculture, Ottawa. (No stamp required).

Potatoes And Sour Cream

(Hungarian Style)

- 4½ cups diced raw potatoes (1-inch cubes)
- ¾ to 1 cup boiling water
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 4 tablespoons melted butter
- 1½ cups sour cream (1 pint)
- 1½ teaspoon salt
- Paprika

Cook potatoes in boiling salted water 3 minutes. Add butter. Cover

Annual Report Hon. J. R. Cooke Chapter I.O.D.E.

It is my duty and privilege as your Secretary for 1960, to present the 20th Annual Report of the Hon. J. R. Cooke Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire.

This past year has been another successful year. I would like to thank the Regent, Mrs. Warren, the officers and members for giving freely of their time and abilities and for the co-operation we received. Particularly I must thank the merchants and citizens of Stirling and district who so generously support our various projects.

During the year 1960, nine regular evening meetings were held, 8 in the members' homes and one in the I.O.O.F. Hall. One quilting was held in July at Mrs. David Duffin's cottage.

The Chapter has 50 members and one life member. We regret the loss of two valued members, Mrs. Lorne Wilson and Mrs. Douglas Pyear, who withdrew their membership. One new member, Mrs. John Sheridan, was welcomed into the Order.

All the members subscribe to "Echoes", the official publication of the I.O.D.E.

The highlights of the programmes for the year were:

(1) Mr. Kenneth Willcocks, with Mr. Arnold Duke, of Belleville, gave a talk on Civil Defence as organized in this area, and the purpose of C.D. in time of disaster.

(2) Mrs. Donald McIntosh (a member) displayed and demonstrated floral arrangements made of foam plastic.

(3) Mr. G. R. Cameron, Chairman of Belleville and District Canadian Red Cross, spoke on the Blood Transfusion Service of the Red Cross.

(4) Mr. Donald Ferguson, Assistant Field Secretary (Kingston District) of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, explained some of the work being done by the C.N.I.B. and followed with a film, "Hold Back the Night."

(5) Mrs. H. Jairath, a native of England now residing in Canada, gave a talk on present day India, its government, the homes and customs and the part women play in the life of that country.

A bursary of $100.00 was awarded to Michael Long, a graduate of Stirling High School, who is now attending Queen's University at Kingston.

A book was presented to Linda Mayhew, who obtained highest honours in Grade VIII at Stirling Public School.

A $10.00 donation was given the Stirling Festival of Sacred Praise.

On Citizenship Day, a donation of $25.00 was given to Stirling Public School, the money being used for the purchase of reproductions of famous Canadian paintings.

I.O.D.E. calendars were placed in each room of the Stirling Public School and one in the Public Library and one in the High School.

The Chapter "adopted" a refugee child, Anna Bendig, of Germany, in this year designated as World Refugee Year.

The Annual Spinners' Dance in January and the Fashion Show in March were again most successful.

In April the Regent, Mrs. Edwin Warren, and Standard Bearer, Miss Rosa Spry, attended the Provincial Annual Meeting in Hamilton.

In May the Regent and Standard Bearer, our life member, Mrs. Earl Luery, and Mrs. Carl Potter, attended some of the sessions of the National Meeting in Toronto.

Several members attended Citizenship Courts in Belleville both in May and November.

In observing Citizenship Day (May 24th), the Chapter entertained over 150 New Canadians and those working toward their citizenship from Stirling and district. The pupils of Grades VII and VIII, under the direction of Mrs. Glen Heath and Mrs. Bruce Bell, presented the skit, "What's In A Name?" Several of the New Canadians provided musical selections. Representatives from the Stirling Village Council and School Boards were present.

Several members attended the 50th Anniversary Tea of Argyll Chapter, I.O.D.E., in Belleville in June.

The Standard Bearer attended the Semi-Annual Meeting in Fort William in September. We are proud that our Chapter's flag was carried in the processions in the Opening Ceremonies of each meeting — the Provincial, the National and Semi-Annual.

The Regent and a number of members attended the Area Conference in Kingston in October and found the Conference instructive and interesting.

The members attended the Remembrance Day service on November 11th and the Regent placed the I.O.D.E. wreath.

The highlight of the year's activities was the District Dinner held in October, for which the Hon. J. R. Cooke Chapter entertained approximately 175 members from eight district Chapters, namely Marmora, Norwood, Picton, Campbellford, Belleville (2 chapters), Napanee (2 chapters). We were fortunate in having Mrs. J. L. Camerson, 1st Vice-President of Provincial Chapter, as guest speaker. Mrs. W. H. Blake, National Councillor, and Mrs. M. E. Clarke, Mrs. Donald Murray and Mrs. J. Benor, Provincial Councillors, also attended.

The following articles (at value of $293.75) were completed and sent to headquarters for distribution:

6 complete layettes, 3 Korean quilts, 4 crib quilts, 9 pairs Korean socks, 2 (3-piece knitted) baby sets, 2 pair child socks, 6 pair mitts, 1 toque, 4 stuffed toys, 17 sweaters, 2 pair booties, 1 slip, 18 diapers, 3 girls' skirts, 7 pair pyjamas, 6 dresses, 7 matinee jackets.

The following allocations were made to Provincial and National Headquarters:

Special Representatives Fund	5.00
Commonwealth Relations	10.00
Workroom Maintenance	10.00
Provincial Film Fund	1.00
Canadian Scene	2.00
National Shipping Fund	10.00
National Film Fund	1.00
Korean Projects Fund	10.00
Overseas Relief Fund	10.00
Peace Garden	1.00
Total	$110.00

Before closing may I add these few remarks.

Founded by the late Mrs. Clark Murray in 1900, in Fredericton, N.B., the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire celebrated its 60th anniversary this year. Organized primarily to stimulate patriotism, the Order has broadened its aims and ideals, and carried on, with a fine record of service, through two Great Wars. During peacetime its educational and welfare work has reached huge proportions, and is admired and respected by people in all walks of life.

We are proud to have taken a small part in these past achievements, but must turn our thoughts to the present and the future.

As we enter the year 1961, we are aware that these are anxious days, and those before us may be dark and puzzling. But let us begin this year with faith, hope and courage. Let us work for all that is fine in the fields of art and literature, education and welfare, and uphold our heritage of a democratic way of life based on freedom and justice for all.

Respectfully submitted,

Keitha E. Morton

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

GOOD FARM MANAGEMENT GETS PRIORITY IN THIS YEAR'S EXTENSION PROGRAM

Hon. W. A. Goodfellow, Minister of Agriculture, has announced that a farm management programme will receive priority through the extension service of his Department this year.

The Minister said that it was the intention to establish in each County and District an active programme on a local level which will enlist the active support and co-operation of the farm people of the Province. The object is to develop a closer co-ordination of existing extension services with emphasis being placed on a common approach to meeting farm management problems.

By means of the programme it is hoped to focus attention on the business aspects of farm management through greater attention being given to accounting procedures, budgeting and choice of enterprise. The programme will also seek to encourage the practical application of the findings of agricultural research and the adoption of recommended practices.

"It is my hope that this emphasis being placed on farm management will increase the ability and efficiency of the individual farm operator and homemaker in farm and home management," said Mr. Goodfellow. "I think that the undertaking will do much to improve the economic position of farm families and make possible a higher standard of living on a continuing basis."

As part of the intensified program, the Agricultural Representative in each County and District will have the responsibility to initiate and conduct the programme in his respective area.

In order that as many as possible may benefit, membership in the programme will be limited to four years to allow new members to join and thereby provide an opportunity for a greater number of participants to receive instruction and assistance.

Assistance will be given in the analysis of farm account books and will be carried out on a central or regional basis as may be determined most advantageous.

Agricultural economists and other specialists within the Department will be available to assist the Agricultural Representative in providing the necessary instruction. It is intended that major emphasis will be placed on individual consultation with the farmer and through periodic visits to the farm to increase the effectiveness of the advisory service.

FROM HOG FEED TO DISEASE KILLER

From a hog feed to a plant disease killer — that would be the Cinderella story of whey.

Now being disposed of as waste at many Canadian cheese factories, whey may yet prove a key weapon in the fight against plant disease.

Dr. W. A. F. Hagborg, a Canada Department of Agriculture scientist, reports that spraying with whey at the Winnipeg Research Station aided the plants in resisting the virus disease known as stripe mosaic.

This barley, he says, developed little infection even when the whey was diluted to one-fifth its ordinary strength.

And, notes Dr. Hagborg, in New Zealand and United States milk has been found to protect tobacco plants from virus infection, although it is too costly for wide-spread use.

Concludes the Winnipeg scientist: "This discovery of the protective influence of dairy products may be important in developing controls for the more serious viruses, such as yellow dwarf of barley and oats, and possibly in the control of virus diseases of humans and animals."

A word of caution: It would not be profitable to spray fields of barley with whey to control stripe mosaic. The main varieties, especially Parkland, are not damaged seriously by this disease.

Timely Tips

Dairymen who need cows to freshen next fall should make sure they are bred within the next few weeks. It's important that a carefully worked-out calving schedule be followed so that there is a regular supply of milk to fill the quota, say livestock specialists at the O.A.C. One Haldimand County farmer recently reported he might have to buy some fresh cows in order to do just that.

Don't take chances while driving when visibility is poor. Hal Wright, Farm Safety Specialist with the Ontario Department of Agriculture, says that too many people don't turn their lights on because they think they can see all right. The point is, says Wright, that others should be able to see you.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

GOOD SIGN

A storekeeper who had heard his customers talking a lot about the unemployment problem, the farm problem, the industrial problem, etc., finally had an inspiration. He prepared a big sign and put it up on the wall where everyone could read it. It was a very provoking sign which read:

"Are you helping towards the solution or are you just part of the problem?"

To answer that question a man is forced to take a look at himself. Is he leaning on society, or is he contributing to it? Is he asking for hand-outs or is he giving? Does his scheme for the welfare of the country call for any sacrifice on his own part; or is it a scheme to force others to sacrifice. Such a sign made customers less inclined to talk glibly about solutions to serious problems.

There is another statement that might well be set up in bold type and used as a sign for all to read. It's a quotation from a salesman, who said: "There is nothing wrong with the Canadian economy that a 20% increase in sales wouldn't cure."

That makes sense. Today we are not able to manufacture and sell enough Canadian products to absorb the manpower once employed on farms but now seeking city work. Farm policies over the past twenty years have led to surplus after surplus, and there is no realistic solution in sight. Somehow our manufacturing industry must take up the slack. More Canadian goods must be made and sold on world markets.

How can these sales be accomplished. Only by becoming more efficient, by keeping our quality high and prices low. Any person who is not working towards that solution is part of the problem.

Cooking Comments

Humans require approximately a dozen vitamins for normal functions in the body and to maintain health. One of the many problems of the busy homemaker is that of providing these nutrients for her family in a well balanced and appetizing diet. According to the Food and Nutrition Department, Macdonald Institute, Guelph, the place to buy vitamins is the grocery store — in food. If foods are selected and cooked with care and sense adequate amounts of all essential nutrients except vitamin D can be obtained from meals.

A communication was tabled from Dr. E. K. Peterkin asking for the co-operation of the Board in ensuring that special consideration be given one of the pupils now under medical care.

No action was taken by the Board on a questionnaire tabled from the Associated High School Boards regarding payment of school board members.

Local Cancer Society Plans To Canvas Stirling District Next Month

The local Cancer Society is engaged in making plans for a drive for funds for this very worthy cause during the month of April. Ex-Reeve J. V. Holt is the chairman of the local society. Other officers are Mrs. Evelyn Burgess, Secretary; L. Rawlings, Treasurer; and Dr. W. Hipwell, C. E. West, Mrs. Basil Kuglin, directors.

According to Chairman Holt over seventy-five canvassers will be required to cover the complete territory within a seven-mile radius of this Village, and the local executive is hopeful that those asked to assist will do so willingly. Any person willing to volunteer as a canvasser is asked to contact any member of the executive.

"The Boy Friend" by High School Students Assured Capacity Audience

Tomorrow (Friday), Saturday and Monday the local High School's production of their first musical play in years, "The Boy Friend," goes on stage.

Most of our readers will have seen during the last few years the steadily increasing scope of the High School's dramatic corps. Starting with simple revues, they have been entertaining us more and more with a gradually increasing repertoire; their plays have covered simple sketches, slapstick farces, serious plays, and even a scene from Shakespeare; their songs, from simple harmonious lyrics, have advanced to selections from "Oklahoma," "South Pacific" and "My Fair Lady." It is not surprising, since they have the singing, dancing and comedy talent this year, that they should attempt the very tuneful "The Boy Friend" as their first full-length musical. It is a long time since Stirling has had a musical of this type, and it is hoped that the residents from far and near will give the school their unstinted support.

To avoid the usual, but unnecessary rush for the best seats early in the evening, arrangements have been made on this occasion to see that

Now how would you like that?

Stirling W.I. Quilting

On Wednesday morning a number of enthusiastically-minded women gathered at the home of Mrs. C. Gay for a quilting. All enjoyed a pot luck dinner and by 2.30 p.m. the quilt was completed. Later all gathered in the spacious living room, along with more ladies for the March meeting.

The President, Mrs. B. Reid, welcomed all and thanked those who so faithfully attended the quilting. The W.I. Ode was sung, followed by the repeating of the Lord's Prayer.

The topic for the day's meeting was "Health and Home Economics." The roll call was suitably chosen as "Household Hints" with numerous worthwhile labour-saving ideas given.

Correspondence included Belleville Fair exhibits for the Women's Institutes of the area. A letter from Miss Julia Lane, Home Economist, and the notice of the Officers' Conference being held at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, May 4th and 5th.

The Treasurer's bills including a rubber stamp for W.I. work, was ordered paid.

The Birthday Box was well treated with these birthday anniversaries — Mrs. West Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Williams.

Mrs. Gay, Secretary for Pennies For Friendship, received several donations. Mrs. West gave several demonstrations in making handy things around the house. Cut the corner from an envelope and slip it over the upper part of pages of magazine or a book you are reading. This makes an ideal book mark.

Some good advice was Mrs. West's reading: Sometimes when you're feeling important,

Sometimes when you're ego's in bloom, Sometimes when you take in for granted

You're the best qualified in the room, Sometimes when you feel that your going

Would leave an unfillable hole, Just follow this simple instruction And see how it humbles your soul: Take a bucket and fill it with water, Put your hand in it up to the wrist; Pull it out, and the hole that's remaining

Is a measure of how you'll be missed, You may splash all you please when you enter.

You can stir up the water, galore But stop, and you'll find in a minute That it looks quite the same as before. The moral of this quaint example Is to do just the best you can;

Be proud of yourself, but remember, There is NO indispensable woman.

Health and Home Economics was presented in a different light. Arranged by Mrs. C. Gay and Mrs. R. Williams, there was a discussion period which was most interestingly given. It takes will power to choose between what we need and the lust of just buying. Are our modern homes turning into show windows instead of the family visiting? Is the television the centre of attraction, pushing behind us the friendship of kindled between friends? Are the old time sing songs a thing of the past? Instead the blare of a wild-horned orchestra is heard shouting through our homes. Are we still, as housewives, proud of our achievement in making tasty dishes, or has the electric can-opener taken this place with a hasty meal set-up?

Music soothes the soul. A close conversation or discussion of your favourite topic brings an accomplishment to the mind. The assurance that you have true friends is a great benefit to health. The friendly good morning as we meet on the street so often keeps us singing through the rest of the day. Working among flowers in your garden or houseplants is a satisfying project. One's health can be kept in good shape with a few plain foods as well as reasonable care and rest. This part was led by Mrs. Williams.

The meeting closed with the singing of the Queen. A dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Gay, assisted by Mrs. Williams.

At the close Mrs. P. Bronson expressed appreciation to Mrs. Gay, who so willingly opened her home for quilting and bound the quilts as well as arranging for the pot luck dinners. She also thanked the programme committee for the afternoon's meeting.

Big Flood

The worst flood ever experienced in Stirling, doing thousands of dollars worth of damage, occurred yesterday when a day-long downpour of rain combined with melting snow caused the Mill Pond to overflow. Property owners from Williams' blacksmith shop to the Bank of Montreal block suffered serious loss as the height of the water constantly rose until about four o'clock a.m. the flow was at its peak.

Mill Street was a veritable river and the water as it flowed through the various alleys and gangways carried with it everything which could possibly be torn from its moorings. Every store along Mill St. was flooded, with the water flowing at counter height in several stores. The Bank of Montreal, Whitty's Insurance office, J. S. Whitehead's restaurant, Hadley's Jewelry store, Duffins, Harry Francis Five to a Dollar store, Reynolds Shoe store, Walter Wright's bake shop, McGee & Lagrow Hardware, C. B. Rollins barber shop and R. H. Williams' residence were all flooded.

Hockey Champions

West Huntingdon won the District Hockey Championship from Bethel with a 3-1 victory on Tuesday night before over 500 rabid fans. Thos. Sarles, goalie; McGowan brothers, defence; H. Mott, Kirby, Rodgers, C. Wright, Cooke, Thompson and Reid were members of the victorious team.

Local and Personal

Miss Patricia Shea has accepted a position with the Royal Bank in Toronto.

John Munro, student at Queen's University, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Munro.

Wellman's W.M.S.

The regular meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of Wellman's United Church was held at the Rawdon Parsonage on Tuesday, March 7th. There were 15 adults and 4 children in attendance.

The President, Mrs. Omar Dracup, presided. She gave brief comments on the topic of this meeting, "Our Needy Brethren."

"O Master Let Me Walk With Thee" was the first hymn sung, followed by prayer by Rev. W. G. Fletcher. Psalm VIII was read responsively, following which another Scripture passage, John 5: 1-17, was read by Mrs. Gerald Clancy. Mrs. Dracup made further comments on these Scripture readings. The hymn, "O City, Seen of John," was sung. Little Miss Janice Clancy took up the collection, which was dedicated by Mrs. Dracup.

The minutes read by Mrs. Clifford Clancy were approved. Mrs. Dracup gave a brief report of the annual of the Presbytery of the W.M.S. held recently in Stirling.

Mrs. John Carlisle gave a reading entitled "Women At Work." Mrs. Kenneth Tompkins sang "The Lily of the Valley." Mrs. Jack Dunham gave a reading "Easter Is Coming."

Mrs. Douglas Clancy gave a very complete report from the study book. The topic for this study being, "A Home for the Homeless." She stressed the continual needs of refugees throughout the entire world. Rev. W. G. Fletcher added remarks along this subject.

Mrs. O. Dracup thanked all taking part in the proceedings of the meeting. Mrs. A. Akins for the preparation of the programme and the hostess Mrs. W. G. Fletcher for opening her home for the meeting. She then closed with the Mizpah Benediction. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and her assistants while all enjoyed a social hour.

Several quilt blocks were brought in and quilt lining and batts were displayed in readiness for two quilts to be made up.

The exports of pulp and paper from Canada run to about one billion dollars a year.

St. Paul's AOTS Club Entertain Ladies

"We live in a fish bowl," said Rev. Richard Jones, National Executive Director of the Canadian Council of Christians and Jews Inc., when he spoke to the St. Paul's AOTS United Church Men's Club on the occasion of their second annual Ladies' Night held on Wednesday, March 1st.

Rev. Jones, a former Methodist minister, has been associated with the National Conference of Christians and Jews ever since its inception and has on its behalf and his own travelled extensively in Europe, India, China, Siam, Mexico and Alaska.

Rev. Jones continued his address by stating that everyone sees each other as clearly as we see fish in a bowl; our actions must measure up to our words. When the world was big, man could be small, but now that the world is small, man must be big. If we are to be Christians we must live Christ. Service is a symbol of Christianity and by so giving service to others we will get self satisfaction and bring a smile to the face of God.

Harold Bird officially thanked Rev. Jones, who had been previously thanked by all present with a standing ovation.

After a delicious dinner provided by the W.A. of Carmel Church and considerable gaiety the evening settled down as Allan Wells proposed a most appropriate toast to the ladies which was graciously replied to by Mrs. Marvyn Scott.

Following a duet by Miss Edith de Jong and Jack Bush who sang "Count Your Blessings" and "I've Got A Mansion Just Over the Hill Top," Wendell Camm led in a short devotional period. For the meditation he briefly discussed making decisions, mentioning that every day we must make decisions and so must have a code of ethics if we as leaders in a community are to give leadership and good, just decisions.

With each one present thinking on these thoughts Rev. P. J. Hommersen closed Ladies' Night with the benediction.

Interesting Meeting St. Andrew's W.M.S.

The regular meeting of St. Andrew's W.M.S. met at the home of the Rev. F. A. and Mrs. Crook. Considering the weather a fair attendance was present.

The President, Mrs. B. Reid, opened the meeting with a word of welcome to all and the singing of the hymn "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross" and repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison.

Mrs. L. Duford read the Scripture from Corinthians 13, followed by prayer by Mrs. K. J. Rooney. Roll call was responded to by the word "Charity."

An invitation from St. Paul's W.M.S. to join with them for their April meeting was accepted.

The programme opened with the hymn "Come Let Us Sing of a Wonderful Love." Some very interesting slides were shown of the W.M.S. vans and deaconess work in Alberta and the Rocky Mountains, showing how needed are all these helpers and how willing we should be to send what help we can to them. The slides were operated by Mrs. Rooney and Mrs. R. Eggleton gave the commentary. Mrs. L. Munro gave a reading on "Meditations for Holy Week." Rev. Crook gave a very fine talk on "Faith, Hope and Love" and left some very splendid thoughts for all to remember.

Lunch was served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. R. Eggleton and Mrs. L. Munro. Mrs. Don Farney expressed the thanks of the Society to all who helped.

FREEZE EGGS NOW FOR SUMMER MONTHS

Like most foods, eggs have their seasons of heavy and light production, when they are plentiful, prices are low, when they become scarce, prices go up.

The heaviest supplies of eggs come during the winter and early spring months. If you are the proud owner of a freezer and it is not filled to capacity why not freeze a few dozen eggs when the prices are low in your area? Freezing eggs now will save money later when prices rise again. Frozen eggs can be used in any type of cooking or baking as well as for omelets and scrambled eggs.

The following Consumer Section directions tell how to freeze eggs successfully. This information is included in the bulletin "Freezing Foods."

For a free copy write to: Information Division, Canada Department of Agriculture, Ottawa. No postage required.

FREEZING EGGS

Preparation:

Because frozen egg yolks become gummy when not mixed with sugar or salt, one of these must be added for successful freezing of whole eggs and egg yolks. Egg whites may be frozen separately without any added ingredients. If whole eggs are to be frozen for only two or three weeks they may be frozen without sugar or salt.

Prepare eggs as follows:

WHOLE EGGS — Break eggs out of shell. (1) For eggs to be used in main course dishes add $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt to 1 cup eggs (about 6 eggs); (2) for use in baking and desserts add $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon sugar to 1 cup eggs.

Mix thoroughly with a fork. Package and freeze.

EGG YOLKS — Break all egg yolks. (1) For egg yolks to be used in mayonnaise add $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt to 1 cup of egg yolks (about 4 yolks); (2) for use in baking and desserts add 1 teaspoon sugar to 1 cup egg yolks.

Mix thoroughly with a fork. Package and freeze.

EGG WHITES — No mixing is required. Package and freeze.

Packaging:

For best results freeze eggs in small packages containing specific amounts for certain purposes. (Examples: 6 eggs for scrambling for breakfast; 12 egg whites for angel cake; 3 egg yolks for mayonnaise; 4 whole eggs for cream puffs; 1 whole egg for muffins; 2 egg whites for meringue, etc.) Be sure to mark the packages so you will not have to guess which ones contain salt or sugar.

Use freezer cartons or glass jars for large amounts of eggs, leaving $\frac{1}{2}$ inch headspace at the top of cartons and 1 inch headspace at the top of glass jars. For smaller quantities, use paper baking cups, custard cups, individual ice cube forms, etc., or use a spare ice tray to make "square eggs," allowing one or two eggs for each division in the tray. When eggs are frozen, remove them carefully from custard cups or ice cube containers and pack in freezer bags.

Storage Time:

Eggs may be stored at least four months.

Thawing and Cooking:

Thaw eggs in the refrigerator or at room temperature, allowing the eggs to warm to room temperature before using so that they will whip or mix better. If thawed egg yolks appear to have a thicker consistency than fresh yolks, add a little water. Use thawed eggs promptly. Do not re-freeze them.

Frozen eggs can replace fresh eggs in regular recipes as follows:

- 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ tablespoons thawed whole egg mixture for 1 fresh egg;
- 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ tablespoons thawed egg white for 1 fresh egg white;
- 1 tablespoon thawed egg yolk for 1 fresh egg yolk.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

A TAX COLLECTOR LAUGHS

I find nothing funny about taxes. I firmly believe that unless there are large reductions in Canadian tax rates, our price structure is going to mount so high that consumers both at home and abroad will turn their backs on Canadian products. So the fact that our chief tax collector, the Honourable George C. Nowlan, was able to get a tummy-chuckle out of me ought to put him a notch above Jack Benny.

Mr. Nowlan told of writing to a taxpayer in the Province of Quebec to ask him what was the length of his residence there. He replied saying that he was at a loss to understand why they required such information and what the blank business it was of theirs as to the length of his residence, but if they had to have it, he would inform them that it was forty-two feet long.

He told, too, of one male taxpayer who listed himself as single in his return, but made a deduction for a dependent infant son. The assessor wrote him and said he presumed this was due to a stenographer's error. The taxpayer simply returned the Department's letter with the notation, "It sure was."

Mr. Nowlan also passed along a tip to smugglers who try to avoid customs duties at the border. He said, "Look the Officer straight in the eye, smile, be nonchalant, and for heaven's sake, stop putting that match in your mouth and trying to light it with your cigarette."

Those were the jokes.

The rest of Mr. Nowlan's talk was not funny. He told how Government spending has risen from $204 million to over $6 billion since 1914. He pointed out that the expenditure of public monies on the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation alone last year was more than one-quarter of the total Government expenditures in 1914. He said that from the income-earning portion of the mere 18 million people in Canada, the department had to collect over $3 billion in income taxes last year. On top of that, they took in over $2 billion in customs and excise taxes. "That is too large an amount for most of us to comprehend," he said, in a masterpiece of understatement. He broke it down for us. It means that the cash registers of the National Revenue Department ring up $2,630,814 every hour of a working day, and this goes on the whole year through.

Did he give any hope of a tax cut?

No ma'am. He said, "With the fixed charges and statutory enactments with which we are confronted, the tax collector has to work very hard in order to supply the Minister of Finance with the monies which he requires."

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

Maybe these ideas from Stan Young, O.A.C. crop extension specialist, will help you get thicker, more vigorous forage stands. Keep them in mind:

Prepare a fine, firm seedbed. Loose, coarse seedbeds dry out too quickly; they don't give an anchor for the developing seedling. Fine, firm seedbeds help the germinating seed use the moisture in the soil and provide a firm base for the seedling plant to grow.

Provide fertility. Low fertility is a main cause of hay and pasture seedling failures. Use fertilizers and manure in amounts recommended on the basis of soil test. They help the soil provide the fertility so necessary for vigorous, healthy plants. The extra bag of fertilizer used at seeding time pays dividends in better and bigger plants.

Reduce Competition

Competition results in robbery of nutrients needed by forage seedlings. Competition from companion crops (oats and barley) is reduced when low seeding rates of 1 to 1½ bushels per acre are used. Grazing off the companion crop when it is 12 to 24 inches high provides good feed. It also lets light and moisture get to the forage seedlings to make them grow. Weed competition can be controlled in many cases by timely cultivation in seedbed preparation. The tiny white strands of threads in the soil are weeds and easily killed by cultivation at that time.

Weeds that survive seedbed preparation are often controlled by using proper herbicides. 2,4-DB controls many broadleaved weeds, thus giving more chance for alfalfa and birdsfoot trefoil to grow into vigorous plants. The chemical should be applied at 18 oz. of actual acid per acre when the alfalfa and trefoil are in the third true-leaf stage.

Seed early in spring. Stands seeded early in the spring survive better than those seeded at any other time. Legumes then use spring moisture to grow vigorous plants which survive the next winter. August seedlings, though often successful, do not survive quite so well.

Place seed shallow. In tests, seeding brome grass at ½ inch gave 8 plants per square foot. Deeper placement at two inches gave only 5 plants per square foot. Firm seedbeds help keep the seeds shallow. Taking pressure off the discs on the drill also leaves seeds close to the surface and gives better stands.

Use the machinery you have. With care, the ordinary seed drill does an excellent job of seeding forage seeds. If the other five keys to vigorous stands are followed, the implement used has little effect on thickness of stand. Band seeding may have an advantage where fertility is low and limited fertilizer is being used. Light seed coverage using a cultipacker on loams and other light soils, or harrowing on clay soils is beneficial. Special machinery isn't needed.

Timely Tips

If you're seeding oats on clean land this year and feel you won't have to spray for weed control, try this idea: broadcast a few pounds of red clover on each acre of the field. C. H. Kingsbury of the Ontario Field Crops Branch says it won't interfere with the grain crop and you'll gain a crop of nitrogen and organic matter when you turn the stubble under.

Identify your beef cattle with brands, tattoo marks or neck chains, suggests Professor George Rathby, Head of the Animal Husbandry Department at the O.A.C. If you don't you'll find it almost impossible to keep records of a cow's regularity in breeding and of her progeny's feedlot performance. Weight for age, rate of gain, and value on the market performance points that you'll want a record of. Tattooing pliers and numbers can be bought for less than $10.

Numbers for neck chains and straps cost less than 5c each.

If you are sure that mixed grains give you better yields than pure stands of oats and barley, keep two points in mind. First, use the best team of varieties, such as Garry and York, or as second choice, Garry and Brant; or Rodney and Herta, rather than Garry and Herta or Rodney and Brant. Second, don't even try to clean mixed grain for seed; the highest weed seed counts and all prohibited noxious weed seeds in the Seed Drill Survey were in mixed grain samples.

Cooking Comments

Pie, in various forms, is one of the most popular desserts. A good pie depends first of all on the quality of its crust or pastry, says the Food and Nutrition Department, Macdonald Institute, Guelph.

Almost any fat such as lard, hydrogenated fat or shortening, and oils may be used for pastry. But different methods and handling techniques may be necessary for some amounts and kinds of fat and the product will vary accordingly. Pastry made with cold water and hard fat has a flaky texture while pastry made with hot water (which melts the fat) tends to be less flaky and more like shortbread, since the melted fat is easily incorporated.

Shannonville Mill Landmark Burns

One of the oldest landmarks in the Belleville district, the former Shannonville flour and grist mill on the banks of the Salmon River, was destroyed by fire Saturday night when flames roared through the four storey stone structure.

Only the walls of the old mill remain standing, thus ending a link with the historic past dating back close to 150 years.

St. Mark's W.A Bonarlaw

The March meeting of St. Mark's W.A., Bonarlaw, was held at the home of Mrs. Mel Tanner, Stirling, Thursday afternoon, March 9th at 2 p.m.

The meeting opened with the singing of the hymn "Breathe On Me Breath of God," followed by the Litany and Prayer, taken by Rev. Fleming. Mrs. Wellman also read a prayer for the Prayer Partner. The Bible Reading from the 20th chapter of St. Matthew was read by Mrs. Jones.

Roll call, a verse from the Bible containing the word "knowledge" was answered by 12 members and one visitor.

The President, Mrs. W. J. Barlow, welcomed all present. She also thanked Mrs. Tanner for having the meeting.

The Treasurer, Mrs. Neal, gave her report on the Oyster Supper, showing a very good profit.

Thankoffering Secretary, Mrs. Wellman, reminded all members that their thankoffering was due at the April meeting.

It was moved and seconded by Mrs. Neal and Mrs. Heath that all outstanding bills be paid.

The Board letter was read by the Secretary.

Mrs. Tanner gave the second portion of the study book on "History of the Christian Church." The Extra-Cent-A-Day collection was taken up by Marjorie Vilneff.

The programme was in charge of Mrs. Tanner, who with the help of Rev. Fleming, showed the slides on the study book; also some pictures Allan Tanner had taken at the Scout Jamboree.

Rev. Fleming closed the meeting with prayer and a delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

St. Paul's W.M.S.

Despite the inclemency of the weather, there was a fair representation at the March meeting of St. Paul's United Church Missionary group.

Following quiet music by Mrs. Russell Stapley, the President, Mrs. Geo. Carlisle, greeted the ladies, giving the call to worship and opening prayer.

The programme was in charge of Mrs. David Luery and her group. Mrs. S. Elliott conducted the worship service based on the words of scripture, "What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with thy God." Assisting in the service were Mrs. R. Christie, Mrs. M. Ayrhart and Mrs. Oliver Stapley. The lesson emphasized that God is concerned with all of life and Christian people must witness for Christ in every phase and vocation of life.

Mrs. David Luery conducted the study, which, in a most interesting way showed how the church of today is using new methods — 20th century methods of communication to bring the christian message to various parts of the globe.

To illustrate this, Mrs. Percy Utman told of the marvellous use of radio in the Copper Belt of Africa and of the work being done to train and encourage Africans to carry on literary work in their own land. Eighty percent of adults in Africa can neither read or write. Radio and christian literature are mighty weapons in the struggle for the minds of men.

Mrs. R. Christie spoke of the life and witness of Christians in Burma and the need for understanding non-christian faiths. A christian impresses others, not only by what he says, but even more, by what he does.

Miss Mildred-White told of the use of radio in schools and D.Y.S.R. — the Christian Radio Station in the Philippines. This has been greatly supported through aid by the Radio Visual Communication Committee of National Council of Churches. (RAV EMCCO). Canada has a part in this. In over ten countries around the world, Christian Radio programmes are on the air, a project of RAVEM CCO.

Conducting the business part of the meeting, Mrs. Carlisle asked for the minutes and reports. The Treasurer,

An Ode To Referees And Fathers

I think that I shall never see
A satisfactory referee
About whose head a Halo shines
And one who rates reporter's lines
One who calls them as they are
And not as I wish by far.
A gent who leans not this way
But lets the players decide the play.
Poems are made by fools like me,
But only Dad can referee.

The Annual Region Conference of the Catholic Women's League, under the convenship of Group 7, was held in Stirling on Sunday, March 19th.

The Conference opened with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in St. James the Minor Church at 2:00 o'clock and then proceeded to the Oddfellows Hall for the Annual Meeting.

Rev Director Dr. Pickett opened the meeting with the League Prayer, followed by the singing of the hymn, "Come Holy Ghost" by all the members of the League. Mrs. R. Marbury, President of the Stirling League, welcomed the visitors and hoped they would all carry home a wealth of information from their Regional Conference.

Society For Crippled Children Needs $975,000 For Work

When a child who lives far from any large hospital centre is crippled and cannot walk to a clinic because of his handicapped condition, he is not forgotten. As a matter of fact, he is being sought out more and more these days as the Ontario Society for Crippled Children along with members of some 226 clubs across the province, of which the Rotary Club of Stirling is a member, sponsor more of the unique mobile clinics in which the doctors, nurses and equipment go as close to the young patients home as possible.

Financed by Easter Seal contributions, the clinics are held in the hospital — if the town is large enough for one — but have been quite successful in community centres, town halls and service club buildings. For several years large crowds of crippled children — sometimes as many as 100 a day — have been examined by specialists in this type of portable clinic.

When a day and place are settled for a clinic, the local newspapers and radio stations usually advertise the details. Doctors within a 75-mile radius are alerted and send registration cards so that crippled kiddies wishing to attend, might do so through their family doctors.

If a transportation problem is involved, the Society nurse and the crippled children's committee of the local service club, work out the details so that the child reaches his appointment on time. They also make sure there is a good supply of milk, cookies and toys on hand for restless and fretful children while they wait their turn. As the child's disability is examined the doctor dictates his diagnosis and recommendations into a recording machine, and these are transcribed later for use of all the medical personnel involved.

Often the doctors advise a camp session at one of the Society's five summer camps. A child may be hospitalized locally if equipment and personnel are available to cope with the particular ailment. Otherwise the patient may be sent to Toronto or one of the other large medical centres for new braces, crutches or physiotherapy.

Important follow-up work is usually necessary in every case, and is carried out efficiently by the corps of nurses on the staff of the Ontario Society for Crippled Children — an organization which now needs $975,000 to continue to take hope and opportunity from one end of the province to the other in mobile clinics and its many other varied and necessary services.

Stirling Cancer Society To Canvas Next Month

Cancer presents one of the greatest medical challenges of this century and the attack on it is the greatest single undertaking in medical history. In the words of the Hon. J. Waldo Monteith, Minister of National Health and Welfare "It's conquest will require an equally massive effort on the part of every segment of our health team. By responding generously to its 1961 appeal, we can ensure that the Canadian Cancer Society will continue to throw its full weight against this age-old enemy of human health and well being."

The April objective of $3,257,000 is only part of what must be spent in 1961 on the increasing tempo of the attack on three broad fronts — RESEARCH, EDUCATION and WELFARE SERVICES. All of the Society's resources will be used in keeping with its policy to ask for no more than is needed in the year ahead and the need for funds is greater this year than ever before. The Society is confident that organizations, business men and individuals will wish to participate in this work by contributing in full measure.

The local Cancer Society will sponsor the appeal in Stirling and district.

Eggleton

Mission Band

The March meeting of Eggleton Mission Band was held Friday afternoon at the school with 23 children and 3 adults in attendance. Dianne Prest presided over the programme prepared by Glenn Stapley and Kenneth Danford.

The opening hymn "Take My Life and Let It Be" was followed by all repeating the Mission Band Purpose and Lord's Prayer. The Scripture reading, Psalm XI, was read by Dianne Prest and a lovely poem, "Forgive Me Lord When I Wander" was given by Lois Danford. The offering was gathered by Eddie Stapley and dedicated with a prayer read by Wayne McMullen.

The next meeting is to be held at the school on Friday afternoon, April 21st when the Easter Thankoffering will be received.

A poem "Our Prayers" was read by Gerald Stapley after which an interesting reading was given by Beverley Stapley.

The chapter "Yasuko Discovers the Bible Lands" was presented by the leader, Mrs. M. Clancy, who had the pupils point out Japan on the school globe, also the capital, Tokyo. The Leader showed a picture of a Japanese family sitting on mats on the floor to eat their meals. She also described how much they used pretty fans.

The chapter was about a family of four — father, mother, a girl Yasuko and a boy named Shingi. One day the father announced that they would take a long trip the following Sunday. All were very happy about it but Shingi. He had been attending a Church School and didn't want to miss the Sunday morning class. Finally it was decided that the family would go in the afternoon on a short-trip to a park.

At a later date the teachers at the school and a number of the children were going on a trip by train to attend a large Christian Rally. Yasuko and Shingi finally obtained permission from their parents to go along with the others.

During the recreation period Mrs. Clancy had the junior pupils colour Japanese pictures, while the senior pupils made music playing with bells, drums, paper and comb to form a rhythm band and keeping time to the singing of "I've Got the Joy, Joy Down In My Heart." The meeting was dismissed with prayer by Mrs. Reide.

Lunch of iced cup cakes and rice crispie marshmallow squares brought by Mrs. Fitchett and Grant Reid were served by Lloyd Clancy and Kenneth Danford.

Photo Tip

Most beginners at photography get too far away from their subject. The result is a dull series of pictures with the subjects lost in useless backgrounds or foregrounds. Ask yourself what you are taking a picture of, and then select your distance. Most modern box cameras will let you get as close as five feet from your subject.

CANADA DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF EGGS

"Precious articles are done up in small packages." In the food line there is nothing more precious than an egg and neither nature nor artist has yet devised a more beautiful or neater little package than the shell that surrounds it.

Are you taking advantage of eggs?

The Consumer Section, Canada Department of Agriculture in Ottawa, says if you are not, you are losing out because:

The season and price are right — Eggs are plentiful this time of year and as supplies go up, prices come down. Nothing could be more to your advantage than eggs on the menu during the Lenten season for they are excellent substitutes for meat.

Eggs are time savers — They are quick and easy to prepare — just the thing for housecleaning days when you are too tired or too busy to cook.

Eggs work for you — They add colour, richness and flavour to dishes. They thicken custards and puddings. In meat loaves, croquettes and act as a coat for brooding chicken, fish etc. Eggs give cakes their light quality.

Eggs satisfy — For those of us who are dieting or fasting, an egg, especially for breakfast, starts us off with a satisfied feeling that stays with us until lunch. There's no chance then of being tempted with nibble-bait.

Eggs are for Easter and to keep — Pierce both ends of shell with a large needle or skewer. Blow contents into a bowl for use in baking or scrambling. Store shells in egg cartons to keep safely. Tint with food colouring, water colours, or ordinary dyes. Trim with cutouts, decorative braid, velvet ribbons, sequins, dollies, etc. These decorated Easter eggs can be kept for years.

Eggs are for parties — Here's a recipe for Stuffed Eggs En Casserole, or if you prefer a more glamorous name — Eggs a la Chimay. The consumer section in Ottawa suggests serving this dish as an entree or as a main dish accompanied by a salad and crusty rolls. Any way you eat it — it is gourmet fare.

Stuffed Eggs En Casserole

9 hard cooked eggs
4 tablespoons butter
1 cup finely chopped onion
1 can (10 ounces) mushrooms, finely chopped
1 tablespoon catsup
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon finely minced parsley

1 package (12 ounces) frozen peas, or
1 can (20 ounces) peas

Cheese Sauce

5 tablespoons butter
5 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup liquid from mushrooms
2 cups milk
1 1/2 cups shredded, medium cheddar cheese
1 cup fine dry bread crumbs
1 cup shredded cheese

Cut eggs in half lengthwise. Slip out yolks and mash with a fork. Melt butter in frying pan, add onion and mushroom, then saute until lightly browned. Add to egg yolks, along with catsup, salt, pepper and parsley. Combine thoroughly. Refill whites with yolk mixture. Cook frozen peas in a small amount of boiling salted water, drain OR use drained canned peas. Place peas in bottom of greased shallow baking pan, 12x17 inches. Arrange stuffed egg halves firmly in the peas.

Make a cream sauce with the butter, flour, salt, mushroom liquid and milk. Add the 1 1/2 cups cheese and stir until melted. Pour over top of eggs and peas. Mix bread crumbs and remaining cheese and sprinkle over the top. Bake in a moderately hot oven (375 degs. F.) until thoroughly heated, 20 to 25 minutes. Six servings.

Variation: Use 1/2 pound finely chopped, fresh mushrooms in place of canned mushrooms, and increase milk in cheese sauce to 2 1/2 cups.

Ontario Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary Board Meeting

The March meeting of the Ontario Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary was held in St. Paul's Parish Hall, Kingston. In the absence of the President, Mrs. Mitchell, the 1st Vice-President, Mrs. A. O'Kraffa, presided. Rev. T. H. Good, rector of St. Paul's, opened the meeting with Scripture reading and prayers. He extended a welcome to all present.

Mrs. A. Treadgold reported plans are well under way for the Junior Rally to be held in St. George's Cathedral, Kingston, on April 15th.

The Diocesan Dorcas Secretary, Mrs. R. H. Godden, introduced the speaker, Mrs. H. O. McAndrew, of Hamilton, Dominion Dorcas Secretary, who gave a most informative talk on the "Progress of the W.A." and spoke of the many changes taking place in this department. A new Dorcas Department pamphlet is now available and should be of great assistance to all branches.

Mrs. S. Harper expressed the thanks of the meeting to Mrs. McAndrew.

Mrs. W. McNeeley, Educational Secretary, reported the study book is sold out. A few church calendars are still available. The new W.A. Handbook is now ready.

Mrs. K. Hansen thanked the members of St. Paul's W.A. for their kind

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

TOO MANY VICTORIES?

"What Labor is chiefly suffering from today is too many victories," writes Henry Hazlitt in a Newsweek article. "It is no mere coincidence," he continues, "that unemployment now is highest in lines in which wage rates are highest. As compared with average wages of $2.30 an hour in all manufacturing industries, wages in automobile plants are $2.37 an hour, in steel mills $3.02, in bituminous coal mines $3.27."

What appears to be happening, however, is that unions are gaining more and more money for fewer and fewer workers, working fewer and fewer hours. In an effort to help those who are employed, the various governments pump more and more money into the country's economic system. Because this causes inflation, the unions demand a further increase in wages and the process begins all over again.

Says Hazlitt, "There is a perpetual and increasingly desperate race between the printing press and the union demands."

Can this process go on and on? Possibly, as a process, it can continue for some years, because those who inaugurate these wage drives are relatively free from the results. Rank and file union members, however, do suffer. First and most noticeably, they suffer from lay-offs, when business finds it difficult to sell the goods produced at such high cost. Second — and less obviously — they suffer along with the rest of us from the general slow-down in the economy, the higher prices, the enormous tax rates which must be imposed on those working to support the many unemployed.

Eventually, rank and file union members will demand changes in the policies being followed by their leaders. As yet they do not seem to understand what is happening to them.

Hit most painfully are the old age pensioners, or retired persons living on dollars earned when dollars were worth much more. Their dollars have been cut in half by our inflated prices!

If this is true, why is nothing done about it? Obviously, governments fear the power of union labor and consider it politically dangerous to oppose their demands. Companies are unable or unwilling to resist the unions, because one by one they can be struck or slowed down. Ordinary citizens often refrain from criticizing unions for fear of being called reactionaries or anti-labor fanatics.

What's to come of it all? Who knows? Whatever does happen, ten to one it will be blamed on business.

Mrs. S. Meiklejohn Hostess To W.A.

Mrs. Sanford Meiklejohn was hostess to the Woman's Association of Rylstone United Church on Wednesday afternoon, March 8th, when she entertained the members at her home in Springbrook. There were eight ladies present.

The President opened the meeting with the hymn, "Let the Beauty of Jesus Be Seen In Me" and Mrs. Thos. H. McKeown gave the Scripture reading, II Corinthians 1-6 and 17-18. Mrs. W. Spencer gave the meditation and prayer. The hymn, "Lord, I Hear of Showers of Blessing" was sung, followed by prayer by Mrs. S. G. Meiklejohn.

Mrs. Ray Stewart, Secretary, read the minutes of the February meeting. Roll call was answered by "a question from the Bible."

Mrs. Thos. H. McKeown gave a reading, "Dr. Kagawa, World Christian" and Mrs. Ray Stewart read "Judge Not." Mrs. Ellis Jones gave an organ solo, "The Old Rugged Cross." Mrs. Jones also conducted two oral contests, "Name the Person" and "Things Our Grandmothers Missed." Mrs. W. Spencer read, "The Miracle of Christianity" and Mrs. F. McKeown read "The Christians Going Home." A Bible alphabet contest was conducted by Mrs. Fred McKeown and the meeting closed with the hymn "Near the Cross" and prayer by the President, Mrs. Wilfred Spencer.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. T. McKeown and Mrs. W. Spencer.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lily Anderson. Roll call will be "An Easter verse from the Bible." The conveners will be Mrs. H. Seymour and Mrs. W. Rutherford. Refreshment committee will be Mrs. E. Jones, hostess, Mrs. S. G. Meiklejohn and Mrs. R. Stewart.

The meeting closed with prayers by Rev. T. H. Good. Tea was served by St. Paul's W.A. and a social time enjoyed.

Action On Export Puts Lumber Co. On Double Shifts

(Ottawa Journal)

One firm which took the Federal Government's export urgings to heart has accomplished a minor miracle in the lumbering business.

While most other lumber mills are standing idle through the winter, the big white pine mill of Gillespie Brothers, Braeside, Ont., has boosted sales, increased employment and is working nearly 20 hours a day to catch up on back orders.

Trade Minister Hees visited the plant recently and learned the reason.

"Did Something" "We didn't talk about increasing export sales — we did something," said W. W. (Bud) Gillespie, sales manager for the 118-year-old Ottawa Valley firm.

After studying market prospects at the Government's export promotion conference in Ottawa, he said, the company didn't sit back to wait for things to happen.

It entered a big retail dealers show at New York in January for the first time and came home with orders. It dug up sales in the United Kingdom by following up on the Government timber trade mission of last fall. New sales promotion in the West Indies is already getting results.

Eyes On Europe

Now the company is planning to crack markets in continental Europe, especially the rich six-nation Common Market, and federal trade officials forecast good chances of success.

"We'll try to sell anywhere. If they can sell Volkswagens over here, I'm sure we can sell lumber over there."

Export markets aren't the only key to success. Three years ago Gillespie Brothers — an old family firm following traditional methods — decided to take a $2,500,000 gamble.

Five-Acre Plant

The result is a modern mill, one of the biggest in North America, which can process a log into finished lumber under one roof covering five acres.

Using 13 drying kilns and plenty of automation methods, the mill can produce one-inch boards ready for use in as little as two weeks compared with the six to 12 months required under older methods.

The indoors process had allowed uninterrupted operations the year round.

Company officials estimate shipments this winter have been about double what would have been possible under the old system of outdoor storage yards. Workers have 12-month jobs and the company's capital investment is used steadily instead of lying idle from fall to spring.

Friday Night Mixed Bowling

On Friday last Edna Long rolled the ladies' high single of 209 and Kay Dean took high triple with 551 and Rosa Spry holds high average of 187.

Ray Poste rolled the men's high single of 245 and high triple of 643. Ray also holds the high average with 207.

The Pinbusters took the second half with a total of 66 points, followed by the Dodgers with 63, Curlers 33 and Goofers 6.

The first half was taken by the Dodgers with a total of 65 points.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

EASY-TO-DO SEED PROGRAMME

Upgrading your seed grain doesn't have to be a violent "buy, buy, buy" programme during one year, and then resting on your laurels for 5 years; it can be an easy, gradual improvement of seed over the years. C. H. Kingsbury of the Ontario Department of Agriculture Field Crops Branch suggests you keep the following ideas in mind:

- Do:
- Buy 10 or 15 bushels of pedigreed seed each year
 - Sow it on a clean field without stunting on fertilizer according to fertilizer recommendations.
 - Store the resulting crop separately for use as seed the next year.
 - Have the seed crop cleaned thoroughly and treated with a fungicide.
 - Test your seed for germination. Take two samples of 100-seed and sprout them; if germination is below 75 percent, be sure to adjust your seeding rate.

Don't:

- Try to clean mixed grain for seed. It's just about impossible.
- Try to clean your own seed with worn or wrong-sized screens.
- Try to guess the germination percentage.
- Expect good growing conditions to make up for bad seed.

INSECTICIDES IN BORER CONTROL

DDT is still the best insecticide for corn borer control if the corn fodder is not fed to livestock, states H. B. Wressell of the Canada Department of Agriculture entomology laboratory at Chatham, Ont.

This control is safe for use on sweet corn for human consumption as the residue is on the plant, not on the kernels.

If husks and stalks are to be fed to livestock, Sevin, a carbamate insecticide, is satisfactory though more costly than DDT.

Parathion is a powerful phosphate insecticide, but it must be applied oftener than DDT and is dangerous to handle without specialized equipment.

Growers who need a substitute for DDT may use Malathion with safety, although it doesn't control the borer as well as Parathion.

SEED CLEANING ON FARM CAN PAY

With the right equipment, says a Canada Department of Agriculture Scientist, M. E. Dodds, seed cleaning on the farm can be profitable.

Mr. Dodds points out that some farmers may require a triple unit plant, some a double unit one, and others only a single unit.

There are, he notes, fanning mills with capacities of 75 to 100 bushels per hour for commercial grades. For seed, the cleaning rates should be reduced to 25 to 75 bushels per hour.

For a double unit, a high capacity fanning mill or two small ones may be required to keep one indent disk or cylinder working at its highest efficiency. Clean seed depends upon the correct speed for shafts, shakers and disks for best results.

A study of the directions that come with the machine is advisable, says Mr. Dodds.

Seed cleaning machines are discussed in Publication 1061 "Seed Cleaners and Separators," which is available from the Information Division, Canada Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

RABIES

There was a marked decline in the number of rabies cases reported in Canada in the eleventh month period ended February 28th.

Canada Department of Agriculture figures reveal that only 253 cases were reported between April 1st, 1960 and February 28th, 1961 compared with 852 cases for the same period the previous year.

Only Ontario, Quebec, Manitoba and British Columbia reported any incidence of the disease in the past year. There were 201 cases in Ontario, 35 in Quebec, 15 in Manitoba and two in British Columbia.

Animals affected most frequently were foxes, skunks and cattle, with 147 of the total cases recorded involving wildlife. Twenty dogs and 10 cats, all in Ontario and Quebec, were infected.

Two cases of rabid bats were reported in British Columbia. This is the first record of rabies in bats since 1957.

An officer of the Health of Animals Division, Canada Department of Agriculture, said there has been a slight increase in the incidence of rabies in Ontario during the past month.

"The cases," he said, "have been confined largely to wildlife — principally foxes and skunks — with the odd transmission to domestic livestock and dogs. The disease has been reported in 36 Ontario counties."

A slight increase in rabies at this time of year is not abnormal, he said. He added that with foxes beginning to den up, a sharp decline in the disease is anticipated.

Renfrew county in Ontario was the most heavily infected, with the majority of cases involving foxes.

CANADIAN FARM ACCIDENTS COSTLY

Before Canadian farm families get into top gear for 1961 production they will hear of the perils that face them in the fields, in the barns, on the roads and even in their homes.

Statistics collected by 4-H Club members and published through the federal government and other agencies show that in one year—

One of every 25 of the farm population is injured; half of the injured require hospitalization; one in 50 accidents is fatal; 27 percent of all farm accidents involve machinery; one-third of all accidents happen to the 13-20 age group.

The Canadian Chamber of Commerce is helping to see that the facts are known to farmers in each province by forwarding statistics based on a sampling of 49,000 farm folk across the country in 1959.

Nearly three-quarters of the accidents involving farm people are on the farm. The farmyard proved the most dangerous zone. The fields are next but the home, the barn and "other buildings" each account for about 10 percent of accidents.

Farm machinery, chiefly the tractor is involved in 40 percent of accidents on the farm; animals in 20 percent. Stepping on and bumping against objects are other major causes of accidents.

Off-farm accidents involving farm people are mostly traffic accidents on the roads.

Most farm accidents occur in July and August; fewest in February. Most accidents take place in the afternoon and most off-farm accidents in good weather, suggesting over-confidence.

In Ontario alone, an analysis of farm accidents in a 12-month period showed 293 fatalities, 336 permanent injuries, 5,868 temporary injuries, 112,493 days lost, $701,000 in medical bills and $5.2 millions in property damage.

Annual Conference Junior Farmers

(By Ruth Morgan, Press Reporter Hastings County Jr. Farmers)

The Provincial Conference of the Ontario Junior Farmers' Association of Ontario was held on March 10th, 11th and 12th at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph.

One of the many outstanding features was the "Eye Opener" given by Padre W. A. Young, O.A.C., Guelph, on Saturday morning. His topic was, "Adventure in the Future." Padre Young sent us home with many thoughts to remember throughout our life. By his personal experiences he told us not to work through life blindly; not to depend so much on our parents and others; be modern — seek for new and better ways of living; and do not be afraid to try something new — success does not come to you unless you venture something toward it.

Reports from other Counties were given. Two good ones were farm management by Huron County and soils project by Lambton County. The Lambton Juniors succeeded in getting a large percentage of their farmers' soil tested and hope for another such test every three years in their County.

Mr. George Sear, Agricultural Representative for Bruce County, spoke on "Farm Management for Junior Farmers" wherein he stressed the present need to farm by reason not tradition.

The CBC Junior Farm Show was presented live in War Memorial Hall. In the afternoon the boys' session was topped by a visit to the Ontario Agricultural College Animal Husbandry Department.

Meanwhile the girls' main subject was in the form of an address and discussion on "The Role of the Farm Wife," under the capable leadership of Dr. Helen Abell, Rural Sociology Unit, Economics Division, Canada Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

At the banquet Saturday night the winners of the Great Britain and Northern Ireland Scholarships were announced. They are: Ruby Shield, Renfrew County; Edna Strong, Peel County; Graydon Bowman, Temiskaming County, and Gordon Murray, Victoria County. Entertainment was provided by Junior Farmer members. The annual dance concluded the evening.

Sunday morning Dr. R. V. L. Walker, Animal Diseases Research Institute, Department of Agriculture, Hull, Que., introduced and discussed the film, "Fallout and Agriculture." This and a following open discussion featured our part in preparing civil defence against atomic attack or communist aggression. Mr. R. G. Bennett and Mr. E. Bevis described the emergency measures organization in Ontario.

The speaker at the afternoon church service was Murray Mellow, Peel County, the winner of the Provincial Public Speaking Contest. His subject was "Our Daily Bread."

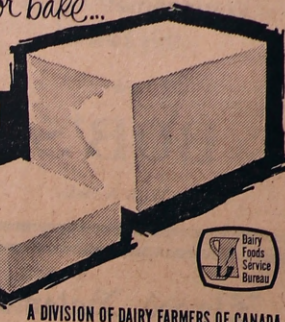

This was the conclusion of the annual conference.

This year Hastings County was well represented by a very large group of Juniors.

$260,000 Collected For UNICEF By Hallowe'en Program

The National UNICEF Committee announced recently that a total of $260,000 had been collected by Canadian children in the Hallowe'en programme sponsored by the United Nations Children's Fund last Fall. Mrs. D. W. Heywood, Vice-Chairman of the Committee and spokesman in the absence of Mrs. Jean Arnold Tory, National Chairman, stated, "This sum represents the efforts of 300,000 children in communities from Newfoundland to British Columbia who added the aspect of sharing to their Hallowe'en fun by collecting coins for UNICEF as well as treats for themselves. As a result of this gift, thousands of youngsters afflicted by disease and malnutrition in the less prosperous areas of the world will be given healthy bodies and the opportunity to lead normal lives."

Participants in UNICEF's Hallowe'en project included groups ranging in size from the tiny villages of the Prairies to the larger metropolitan areas in Southern Ontario. Provincial committees set up in Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Manitoba, Ontario and British Columbia gave co-ordination to publicity and distributional materials. Many of the larger centres organized plans on a community-wide basis with several groups of children canvassing together and attending Hallowe'en parties. In Ontario alone, under the auspices of Mrs. Kate Aitken, Provincial Chairman, over twenty communities established district UNICEF Committees, each providing speakers and films on UNICEF's work to their area before Hallowe'en, and maintaining facilities for accepting the coins following the collection. Most children in towns and rural communities held their Hallowe'en project on an individual group basis, with a teacher or club leader directing the activities. As far away as France, Canadian children stationed with their parents continued to participate in "Hallowe'en for UNICEF" as they did when they were in Canada. One report from the leader of the Brownie packs at Metz, France, described how $60.00 was raised through Hallowe'en celebrations at the Canadian Air Force Base.

Schools, churches, youth organizations and service clubs were among the main supporters of UNICEF's programme. In pre-Hallowe'en studies, leaders and teachers stressed the importance of understanding youngsters in other lands and their differences in customs, habits and living conditions. Film strips, posters, pamphlets and films all helped to tell the story of the less prosperous countries of the world. Prior to Hallowe'en night children were provided with tags and containers bearing the UNICEF symbol to carry with them in their collections. The spirit of October 31st remained essentially the same, with boys and girls masquerading as eerie ghosts or terrifying witches, but with the added knowledge that every penny collected would provide a child in Italy with a glass of milk for a week, or cure a youngster in Chili of T.B.; coins became as important to collect as candies and apples. As one UNICEF official stated, "The enthusiasm and unselfishness which Canadian children have displayed in this effort to help their unfortunate counterparts has made 'Hallowe'en for UNICEF' the greatest humanitarian act ever to be undertaken by youngsters."

UNICEF's voluntary operations have been in existence in Canada for the past six years. Beginning in 1955, the National UNICEF Committee was established as an organization to inform the public of UNICEF's work abroad and to encourage participation in the Hallowe'en programme and the sale of UNICEF Greeting Cards. "Hallowe'en for UNICEF" started as a local venture in Ontario with $15,000 raised the first year, and since then has developed into a national effort with $42,000 collected in 1956, $75,000 in 1957, $125,000 in 1959, and $200,000 in 1960. This year's contribution of $260,000 will be presented to Mr. Maurice Pate, Executive Director of United Nations Children's Fund at the New York headquarters in April by one of the young Hallowe'en canvassers from Quebec. Combined with the Federal Government's annual gift of $650,000, Canada's total donation to UNICEF will go a long way towards promoting the ultimate goal of good health for children in all parts of the world.

UNICEF note cards can be ordered anytime from National UNICEF Committee, 280 Bloor Street West, Toronto 5, Ont. They sell for $1.00 a box, which in turn will provide one mother and child with vitamin tablets for 100 days. UNICEF notes will have a particular meaning for you and your friends.

Cards and notes come as follows: Easter, thank you notes, hostess gifts, graduation gifts, invitations and many more.

Ontario's New Road Map

The 1961 edition of Ontario's official road map, introduced March 6th in the Legislature by Hon. Fred M. Cass, Q.C., Minister of Highways, has several innovations in addition to the annual revisions.

The most noteworthy is the marking of all routes of Ontario's portions of the Trans-Canada Highway. The marking is done with fascimiles of the actual Trans-Canada road sign along the routes. Each route is also clearly named.

Another addition to this year's map is the inclusion of 95 new place names across the province.

The annual routine revisions include new completed roads and highways as well as roads under construction, new bridges, ferries, parks, etc.

This year's cover features scenes from the Upper Canada Village now being erected east of Morrisburg by the Ontario-St. Lawrence Development Commission as a historic tribute to the early pioneers of the area.

Over the years there has been a considerable increase in the demand for this official map. As an example, this year's press run will total 1,500,000 as compared to 1,000,000 five years ago.

Stirling Juveniles Score 7 to 5 Win Over Bracebridge in Second Game

Gary Wright Leads Local Scorers With Four Goals — Craighead Stars In Nets

Stirling Juveniles kept their play-off hopes alive with a 7 to 5 victory over Bracebridge in the second game of the series played in the Belleville Memorial Arena on Monday night. There was a large crowd of spectators who were treated to a good game of hockey, with plenty of thrills.

Protest Lodged

The first game of the series, which was played in Bracebridge on Friday night last, saw the homesters overwhelm Stirling by a 14 to 2 score. However, the local Minor Hockey officials lodged a protest over the eligibility of two of the Bracebridge players and the O.M.H.A. executive are dealing with the matter. The two players in question did not play in Monday's game. From what the writer has been able to learn the mix-up is a matter of the interpretation of a regulation which states that Bracebridge, if they remain in Class "C", were to use only Bracebridge players. The two players in question reside a considerable distance outside Bracebridge, but they have played all their minor hockey in Bracebridge. So what? The question will be decided at a meeting of the O.M.H.A. later this week.

Gary Wright Leads Scorers

Getting back to Monday's game, Gary Wright was the big man, so far as Stirling was concerned, with four goals and an assist. Donnan had a goal and two assists and G. Hagerman a goal and an assist. McMaster got the other counter and an assist. Defensively Noble and Bell played a strong game and Claire Craighead, in goal, was a tower of strength for the locals. For the visitors Austin, with two, Kennedy, Ridstone and Robinson were the goal getters. Bracebridge broke into the scoring only 40 seconds after the opening whistle when Kennedy counted on assists from Robinson and Coates. However Gary Wright evened the count at the 1:23 mark unassisted. Austin gave Bracebridge a 2-1 lead late in the period.

They increased their lead to 3 to 1 at 8:39 of the second stanza, with Austin scoring from Kennedy and Mann. Wright, from Donnan, put Stirling back into the game midway in the stanza and Hagerman tied the score at 18:10 on assists from Wright and McMaster. The latter gave Stirling the lead for the first time in the game at 18:36 on an assist from J. Hagerman, making the score 4-3.

Stirling scored two quick ones early in the last period with Wright combining with Hagerman and Donnan for the first and Donnan getting the second unassisted. Bracebridge fought back however and Ridstone and Robinson narrowed Stirling's lead to one goal. Wright got the final goal late in the period to make the score 7 to 5.

Mr. Edgar Hay-Ellis Replies To Letter From 'Appreciative Parents'

The Editor, The Stirling News-Argus, Sir:

In reply to the Letter to the Editor, signed "Several Appreciative Parents" which appeared in last week's issue of your esteemed paper, I would like to express my thanks to the authors of that letter, and also to all those members of the public who either spoke to me personally or on the telephone expressing their pleasure at the success of "The Boy Friend."

More often than not a schoolmaster's job is a thankless one. The success of his students is taken for granted; their failure is laid at his door; and on the average only one pupil out of twenty will even consider thanking a teacher for the work — and often extra work — done. Therefore it is pleasing when one's work is appreciated, and all the more so when that appreciation is expressed.

I would like to say here that I consider efforts like "The Boy Friend," and in fact all extra-curricular activities — provided they do not overshadow all through the year the basic elements of school life — are an essential part of Education. One of the fundamental aims of Education is, I believe, teaching a student how to think, how to act intelligently in certain situations, in fact, how to fill competently his place in the community. Not all the book-learning in the world, alone, can do that. There are very few successful men and women who can remember all the facts they learned in school; but the learning how to learn, the learning how to think, the learning how to arrive at a reasonable judgment, above all the discipline of realizing that there are other people in the world to be considered — all these have helped to

Mrs. Boyce urged the members to attend the Canadian Federation of University Women Triennial Conference which will be held in August at London, Ontario. The theme of the conference will be "Ideas Afoot" and the discussion groups are being arranged by four of the standing committees, viz: Education, International Relations, Libraries and Creative Arts, and Status of Women.

THE BIBLE TODAY

The Rev. H. Curwen-Smith, a minister of the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church, is the Secretary of The British and Foreign Bible Society in Indo-China. From the headquarters in Saigon the distribution of the Scriptures is carried on in South Nam, Cambodia and Laos.

A story is told of a blacksmith in a remote village who bought a set of the four Gospels and the Acts of the Apostles from a colporteur. He didn't really want the books but the earnestness of the seller caused him to make the purchase. The parcel was taken to his house and tossed on a shelf.

After a serious illness the blacksmith began to read the Gospels to while away the hours of his tedious convalescence. He read, and re-read them and without the help of any Christian worker, for he knew none, he decided to worship the God of the Bible.

Calling his family together he told them that there would be no more ancestor worship. Following the example of Christ he taught himself and his family to pray. After some months a Christian worker visited the village and was amazed to find this church in embryo already there. At a birthday celebration for this blacksmith Christian, no less than eighty persons were present who had been won to Christ by the witness of this man, who himself had been won through the reading of the written word.

"Keep your eyes on the road" is a piece of good advice to drivers. However, the Ontario Safety League points out that the road stretches beyond your car, as well as in front. Good driving requires that you check your rear-view mirror repeatedly — every few seconds — to keep aware of the movements of following traffic.

Honour Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Irvine On 25th Wedding Anniversary

A very pleasant evening was enjoyed when Mr. and Mrs. Albert Carson, Holloway, entertained in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Irvine who celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on March 21st.

Seventeen guests sat down to a delicious supper. The table was centred with a beautifully decorated anniversary cake and silver candles.

Following the supper a large number of friends and relatives arrived to spend the evening with the bride and groom of 25 years. Gordon Reid, assisted by Floyd MacInnes, had charge of the entertainment for the evening, which included contests, games and music. He also had an old public school picture taken some years ago. This proved to be of great interest, as both the honoured guests were in it, as well as six of the guests who were present.

A letter received from the Rev. and Mrs. Neal Eastman, and Harold, of Winnipeg, written especially for this happy occasion, was read.

The honoured couple were the recipients of several lovely gifts, including individual gifts of silver, an electric frying pan, silver earrings, bracelet and necklace, tie pin and cuff links, as well as many cards and messages of good wishes.

Some of the guests present were the bride's mother, Mrs. Etta Belcourt, Belleville; the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Janet Utman, Stirling; their son, Douglas Irvine; the bridesmaid of 25 years, Mrs. Percy Sutherland, of Centenary, and the groomsmen, Chas. Irvine, Ivanhoe.

Mrs. Carson, Mrs. Lorne Reid and Mrs. Floyd MacInnes served a dainty anniversary lunch.

On Saturday evening, March 18th, Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Reid entertained several couples to a social evening. A most enjoyable time was had by those present.

During the evening Mrs. Harry Coulter and Mrs. Charles Ross presented Mr. and Mrs. Irvine with a coffee table on behalf of their friends at Marsh Hill.

Both events had been kept strictly secret and came as a complete surprise to the honoured guests, which added to the delight of all present.

Marjorie and Gerald expressed sincere appreciation for the gifts, good wishes and the hospitality given them at this memorable time.

The Mission Band Purpose was repeated in unison, followed by "Little Sunbeams." Shirley Potts and Sally McAdam read the Bible Lessons and Linda Summers gave the prayer. Judy McAdam gathered the offering of about $2.00 which Brenda Williams dedicated. Carolyn Johnson gave the minutes and roll call.

Attend Convention

Mrs. Percy MacMullen attended the closing convention of the Bay of Quinte Branch of the Woman's Missionary Society last week at Trinity United Church, Cobourg.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. MacMullen was a dinner guest at the home of her niece, Mrs. Lloyd Cable and Mr. Cable, Cobourg.

The first Branch Conference W.M.S. meeting was held in June 1926 at Trenton. Mrs. George Weaver, President of Mount Pleasant W.M.S. and Mrs. Percy MacMullen as delegates were in attendance at that meeting. At the Cobourg sessions special tribute was paid to those women who have carried on Missionary work during the past thirty-five years. In January 1962 the new organization of United Church Women will be functioning and it is hoped that the work will progress in future years. The new study will be introduced in the autumn and the theme is "Churches For New Times" based on Home Missions.

The Moderator, Rt. Rev. Hugh A. McLeod gave a special tribute to all those women in attendance who had laboured throughout the years for the cause of missions. He stressed that a true Christian must be missionary minded. He urged the women in attendance to cling steadily to their faith and carry their missionary endeavour into this new organization.

When you meet a discourteous driver, let him have all the road he wants, advises the Ontario Safety League. Stay away from him. If he wants your right of way, let him have it. Never stand up for your rights when you are seated behind the wheel of a car.

The Good Driver

Dear Editor:

The Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation opposes the introduction of Driver Education into the school programme — even though the course, as approved by the Departments of Education and Transport, and safety agencies such as the Ontario Safety League, is extra-curricular, and optional.

I am happy that educators are concerned about increasing the standards of academic teaching in our schools. But I would like them to contrast the opposition to Driver Education with acceptance of some of the other courses that are taught in high school.

My daughter Jennifer entered high school last September. During her first year she has to take Typing as a compulsory subject. This is compulsory — there was no option. (Actually, I believe this is exceptional and that Typing is normally an optional subject.)

The fact remains that she has to spend hours a week at the keyboard of a typewriter, and if her fingers are not sufficiently nimble to pass the speed test at the end of the year, she believes it may affect her school career. As it happens, her marks on all academic subjects are high, and I am quite pleased that she is learning a useful skill like typing. But I would like to ask this question:

What is the philosophy of educators that encourages Typing as a curricular subject in high school, but will not permit the introduction of Driver Education, even as an extra-curricular, optional course?

Jennifer may or may not use a typewriter in adult life, but it is practically certain that she will drive a car. Who decides — and why — that it is so much more important for her to learn to type well than to learn to drive well?

Many parents believe that learning to drive safely is not only more important than proficiency in typing, but it is much more important from the point of health (i.e. staying alive), from the point of economy (avoiding expensive accidents) and from the point of usefulness. Further, Driver Education in school is of value in developing character — it stresses self-control, consideration for others, courtesy, a realization of responsibility which cannot be claimed for typing courses by any stretch of the imagination.

It has been said that "the ultimate aim of Education is to meet the needs of the people." If parents decide that their children need to be taught correct driving skills, habits and attitudes in school to give them the best chance of survival in this motor age, by what yardstick do educators refuse this, while accepting typewriting as a curriculum subject?

Yours truly,
John Ricketts

For many years the Ontario Safety League has expressed concern at the lack of special standards to regulate the operation, and assure the mechanical soundness of school buses. The League welcomes the recent news that the Ontario Department of Transport is preparing special regulations to apply to school buses.

The Food Basket
Consumer Section Marketing Service
CANADA DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

APPLES

"Squeaky-skinned" apples mean ones that are crisp, juicy and in the prime of their rosy lives. The Consumer Section, Canada Department of Agriculture in Ottawa says that apples like these are now coming out of controlled atmosphere and cold storage as fresh as the day they were picked from the tree. Most of these apples are the deep red and carmine striped McIntosh variety. This all-around apple is a national favourite of such importance that a monument in its honour stands in Dundas County, Ontario!

How are you going to buy the McIntosh? By the bushel, basket or plastic bag? With a Canada Extra Fancy, Canada Fancy, or Canada "C" grade tag? The amount will depend on your storage space. Apples should be kept cool 'neath the collar. If you haven't a cold cellar for storing larger amounts, it's better to buy an amount which may be kept in the refrigerator. Low storage temperatures keep the apples crisp and juicy until you need them.

Canada Fancy grade Macs are the most readily available. They are relatively unblemished and make an excellent apple for eating raw. Typical of all McIntosh apples, they cook smooth and give off a wonderful aroma in the cooking.

Apples For Eating

Three pounds of apples give approximately 9 medium ones for eating out of hand.

Wash well, polish and serve chilled. Salads, fruit cup or gelatin desserts are more colourful if skins are left on apples used in them.

Keep apples from turning brown by sprinkling lemon juice over the cut surface.

Apples For Cooking

Spare the water — Apples have a naturally high water content and therefore too much water makes them soft and they lose their form. Only enough water to prevent scorching or pan sticking should be used.

Spare the seasoning — The aroma and flavour of apples are almost sufficient in themselves. Seasonings should be added to enhance, but never to, compete with these qualities. Spices that blend well with apple flavour are nutmeg, ginger, mint, cinnamon, allspice and anise seed.

Spare the Waste — Pare as thinly as possible and use larger, rather than smaller apples to avoid waste.

OF MANY THINGS

CLOSE UP OF CLOSE UP?

If you watch CBC-TV for very long, you are likely to be convinced that the proletariat gets pushed around badly in Canada. A program called Close Up, which is usually well done, sells this brand of thought all too often. If a moral were stamped at the end of each episode, it would probably read: "Free enterprise is in a mess — vote socialist or communist."

Of course, no such bold moral is flashed on the screen. The indoctrination is subtle, sustained and clever. The little man is depicted as a push-over for the big bad manipulators of our free land.

Once in a while, when the program tries really hard to sell that idea, others decide to take a close up of Close Up itself — and what they find looks rather worse than the "fixing" that was so widely deplored in American telecasting.

There was the case of the so-called divorce witness in a multitude of faked adulteries. It turned out that the faking was faked and while Close Up remained exciting, it became a good deal less persuasive.

Now there is the case of the "unemployed" Hamiltonian, whose pride was damaged so badly because, at 43, he was too old to find employment in this cruel cold Canada, with its devil-take-the-hindmost form of organization. Mr. Starr, the Minister of Labor, took his own close up of this one. He found that the "unemployed" man over whom we had all cried and with whom we all sympathized, wasn't in such a sorry position after all. He had quit a $6000 a year job because he didn't think it had a future. To citizens in the Union of Soviet Republics, that kind of a job would have looked like past, present, future and Heaven all rolled up into one! Furthermore, the "unemployed" man had job opportunities which he apparently thought best to pass up, at least until his Close Up appearance was over!

According to Mr. Starr, the CBC paid the man $25 a day during the weeks he was engaged while the programme was being produced. He has now been flooded with job offers.

Was the CBC again "fooled" by someone whose story it related? Well, as Mr. Starr said so tellingly, "If the CBC wants any real facts before launching upon a programme of this kind, they can easily obtain them."

Cooking Comments

The qualities of good pastry are tenderness, flakiness and a golden brown colour around the edge. The centre should be slightly less brown. Good pastry has a rough, blistered surface rather than a smooth, firm one. Pastry should be cut easily with a fork but not crumble when served.

Either pastry or all-purpose flour may be used for pastry but the latter requires more careful handling in order to produce a tender product, says the Food and Nutrition Department, Macdonald Institute, Guelph.

Carelessness Cause Hunting Accidents

Carelessness and failure to observe the common sense rules of safety are blamed in nearly all the 145 hunting accidents, 35 of them fatal, in Ontario last year.

This emphasizes only too clearly the continuing need for the Hunter Safety Training Course in which the Ontario Federation of Anglers and Hunters and other groups are co-operating with the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests, A. B. Young, director of the programme for the Department, told the Federation at its 33rd annual meeting in Timmins.

"Prior to 1959," Mr. Young said, "our hunting accident records showed an annual average of 75 over a five-year period. In 1959, this increased to 97, due not necessarily to an increase in accidents but rather to more efficient methods of collecting records. The increase to 145 in 1960 appears to be a real one, and this shocking toll is a matter for great concern."

He said that about 12 percent of shooters involved in hunting accidents were contravening one or another of the laws and regulations; charges had been laid against 14. In addition, 15 young people, too young to hold a licence, were involved in shooting accidents.

It is now compulsory, for the first time, as of last September, to take the safe gun handling course, he explained, and, to date, some 15,400 persons had successfully completed the course largely conducted by the sportsmen themselves.

On the 10,700 students who graduated in 1960, about 47 percent were taught by clubs in the Federation, 29 percent by organizations other than conservation clubs and the rest by individual instructors. The Department had certified 4,500 instructors to date, Mr. Young said.

"It is our intention," he explained, "to respect the qualifications of the experienced hunter. However, with 10,000 to 15,000 or more newly trained hunters reaching the field each year, the majority of our hunters, within a few years, will be safe hunters."

The affidavit form regarding the applicant's experience in hunting is serving a useful and definite purpose. There have been some difficulties, but the form and its use for the next hunting season is being given careful study.

"Ontario again has won an award of merit presented annually by the National Rifle Association for outstanding achievement in the field of hunter safety training during 1960."

"The future of hunting rests with the hunter sportsmen. If we are to prevent accidents we must all adhere to the essentials of safe hunting. The hunting season, a time of relaxation, also is a time for sportsmen to demonstrate by example that hunting is a safe and wholesome sport."

Hon. J. W. Spooner, Ontario Minister of Lands and Forests, congratulated the Federation on its work in the Hunter Safety Training Programme. "The Department," he said, "appreciates the excellent co-operation by all the various fish and game associations from one end of the province to the other. This is vital to everyone and its importance in helping to take death and injury out of hunting cannot be overemphasized."

Some 10 percent of all the freight cars loaded in Canada carry pulp, paper, or pulpwood.

CONSERVATION NEWS

PREPARATIONS FOR FIRE SEASON UNDERWAY

Notwithstanding the winter like weather, Forest Protection Staff know from long experience that spring fire hazard conditions usually arrive pretty well on schedule. May be the danger will occur a little early this year, but in any case, once the snow disappears, weeds, brush and other surface debris dry out rapidly and a high fire risk can develop almost overnight.

Preparations for the coming fire season have been underway for some time in the Tweed District with the School Prevention Programme, protection meetings with municipalities and getting equipment in readiness, being given chief attention.

Work on radio, and fire fighting equipment overhaul is progressing well and the District equipment will be in good shape for whatever materializes in the Spring. A number of new maps for lookout towers and dispatching maps have been completed and more Highway fire prevention signs will be available this Spring for use at well selected points along travelled roads.

Since 1947 the Canadian Cancer Society has provided $8,847,126 for research.

"Nothing Old Hat about our house this spring!"

Bright and shiny, like a new spring bonnet — that's how our house looks these days. We've had it "done" all over and now the Joneses are keeping up with us. The cost? Well — much less than you'd think. We financed the "works" with a B of M Home Improvement Loan.

That's how you can get your home improvements done at lower cost. Talk to the people at your neighbourhood B of M branch soon — they'll be glad to tell you all about it.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

NEW LOW FOR HOGS PREDICTED IN 1962

This looks like the year that you might save just the best of your gilts for breeding stock, and really concentrate on boosting your percentage of Grade A's.

At least that's the feeling of O.A.C. hog price analyst R. G. Marshall.

"Expect prices to drop to at least $25.00 in 1962. In fact, I wouldn't be surprised if they fell to $20 in the fall of that year," Marshall says.

This is how he sees the price trend: —Prices will climb from their seasonal low in April of $26-$27, Grade A, Toronto, to $28-$29 between May and August.

—Prices will start skidding in the fall. By the end of 1961, prices will probably be $24 or $25.

—Prices will stay below $25 for most of 1962.

The reason for this prediction: "Forecasted marketings for the last part of 1961 are up 16 percent over 1960; this means we'll be selling 145,000 to 150,000 hogs a week from October 1st to the end of this year. In 1962 the situation will get even worse. We'll probably be selling 20,000 more hogs a week in 1962 than we did in 1961. Peak marketings will probably be in the fall of 1962," states the O.A.C. economist.

He mentions that there has been a downward trend in hog prices for the last 10 years. This has meant that in time of short supply prices didn't shoot upwards as high as they used to; and in times of over-production, prices have tended to drop lower.

SOME ANSWERS TO YOUR FERTILIZER QUESTIONS

Question — How can recommendations for dry fertilizers be converted to liquid fertilizers?

Answer — Pick out a liquid analysis that corresponds as closely as possible to the dry fertilizer recommendation; but in most cases you mended. You won't always find the can substitute similar ratio fertilizer and adjust the rate of application to apply similar amounts of N.P.K. For example: 100 lbs. of 5-20-20 dry fertilizer is approximately equal to 200 lbs. of 3-11-11 liquid fertilizer; or 100 lbs. of 10-10-10 dry equals approximately 100 lbs. of 9-9-9 liquid fertilizer.

Question — When fertilizer recommendations for corn are made, what is the corn plant population?

Answer — On the basis of approximately 16,000 plants per acre.

Question — Last year, no fertilizer was required on a man's field of oats. This year on the same field to be sown to oats, 250 lbs./AC of 4-24-12 was recommended. Why the change?

Answer — Although the farmer didn't mention it in his soil sample report, it was strongly suspected that the oats would be seeded down to grass legume. He needed to fertilize for the new seedlings, not primarily for the oat crop.

Question — What amounts of fertilizer can be drilled with the seed and not get burning?

Answer — No more than 300 lbs. of fertilizer per acre should be drilled with the seed. If higher rates are required, the additional amount should be broadcast before seeding (Note: 10-10-10 at 300 lbs. acre might cause some burning. But the chances are relatively low except under very dry conditions, which don't usually exist at oat planting time.) With corn, not more than 300 lbs. of fertilizer should be banded near the seed. Broadcast if higher amounts are needed. If a split-boot applicator is used, do not use more than 200 lbs. of fertilizer per acre or burning injury may result. For sugar beets, with the new type planter where the seed and the fertilizer are placed separately, almost any amount can be safely applied at planting time. With the older type planters, not more than 300 lbs. per acre of fertilizer should be applied at seeding time.

WEEDS IN POTATOES

Weeds in potatoes may be controlled better with herbicides than by regular cultivation, states the Canada Department of Agriculture's Dr. J. R. Hay. He said that dalapon applied early at four pounds of the active ingredient per acre controls annual grasses, and DNEP at three pounds controls the broadleaf weeds.

As one or two cultivations are usually required for maximum potato yields, the chemicals should be applied in bands only 10 to 12 inches wide on the tops of the rows, at the rate of 1.3 pounds of the active ingredient per acre for rows 30 to 36 inches apart. It is important that application should be made when the weed seedlings are just beginning to emerge, and before more than five percent of the potatoes have emerged.

Care should be taken when cultivating not to cover the treated bands with soil. At Ottawa, an early cultivation and slight ridging before emergence of potatoes and again at blossom time has given satisfactory control of weeds between the rows.

WHEAT CROP PROSPECTS

Agriculture Minister Alvin Hamilton recently applauded plans by western grain producers to hold down the acreage of spring wheat this year.

He noted that this is in line with his earlier warning to farmers not to become over exuberant because of recent heavy export sales. And, he added, the move is advisable also in view of abnormally low moisture reserves on the prairies.

The Minister's comments came on the heels of a DBS survey which showed that prairie grain growers intend to seed 22.8 million acres in spring wheat, an insignificant increase over the previous year's 22.5 million acres.

Canadian Trade Fairs In Ghana And Nigeria

The Department of Trade and Commerce in organizing Canadian Trade Fairs to be held in Ghana and Nigeria in early 1962, has just published a colourful prospectus which is being distributed to Canadian businessmen and manufacturers. It contains a brief story on Ghana and Nigeria as well as descriptive details of the proposed exhibit area.

The publication describes the services available to any Canadian company interested in taking part in these all-Canadian shows. It also contains a brief message from Trade Minister Hees.

In his message, Mr. Hees points out, that in the past Canada's trade with Ghana and Nigeria has been small and confined to a relatively narrow range of goods, mainly flour and motor vehicles exported from Canada, and cocoa beans, palm oil and manganese ore imported from these two countries. "However," states Mr. Hees, "our common situation on the Atlantic and our complementary resources, coupled with the desire of Ghana and Nigeria to develop their economies as rapidly as possible, can lead to a very real expansion and diversification in our trade. Of particular interest is the fact that both these countries have recently eliminated their import restrictions on Canadian goods."

"The Canadian Trade Fairs in Ghana and Nigeria are designed to show these new markets what Canada can offer to meet their growing needs. To be successful, we must have the complete and enthusiastic co-operation of Canadian industry," the Minister concludes.

That the export potential of these new Commonwealth members is tremendous cannot be denied. Nigeria is only a third as large as Canada in area but has a population twice as large — approximately 36,000,000 and its imports have increased over the past five years to more than $500,000,000. Ghana, about one-third the size of Nigeria has a population of 6,690,730. Imports into Ghana have doubled in the past five years to more than $250,000,000 annually.

Trenton Firm Awarded Contract

Public Works Minister Ray Connell announced recently that Miron-Lassing and Associates Ltd., of Trenton, has been awarded the contract for general trades work, including mechanical and electrical trades, in connection with the construction of the Staircase Addition in the Boys' East Dormitory at the Ontario School for the Deaf, Belleville. The successful bid was $16,066.00.

Timely Tips

Take time to overhaul your milking machine this spring before you get on the land, suggests Fred Hamilton of the O.A.C. Dairy Science Department. Remember it works 365 days a year, twice a day, and often gets less care than other machinery. Clean vacuum lines, check vacuum gauge, control valve and pump. Compare the settings with those in your manual.

A bruised udder can lead to mastitis. Clean up your yard before letting your cows out for their spring airing, suggests dairy scientists with the Ontario Department of Agriculture. Too often, refuse that's thrown out into the yard during the winter lies there until after seeding. Cows can slip and hurt themselves on it.

Going to clean up your grain drill soon? Don't move it out of the shed before you check the hoppers for spare chain links, loose parts, or forgotten wrenches. Professor Jim Scott says these winter leftovers could jam the agitator — and maybe break them — when you first move the drill to get ready for spring seeding.

Thinking now about water on your pasture this year? Prof. Raithby of the O.A.C. Animal Husbandry Department suggests a tank of 350 to 600 gallon capacity for tanks not on a pressure system. This will provide a one-day supply for 20 to 30 head of beef cattle. The larger size is best, if there is some danger the power might fail and you'll need a 2-day supply.

Support Campaign of Cancer Society In District

On April 1st volunteers of the Stirling and district unit of the Canadian Cancer Society will begin canvassing for $2500.00. This is part of a record national objective of $3,287,000.

Why is more money needed this year than ever before to fight cancer? Because, having tasted success in proof that their research and educational efforts are contributing to an ever-rising total of "five-year survival" cases, the Society is more determined than ever to deal this disease a death-blow. Meanwhile the money being spent on welfare services for cancer's unfortunate victims is also growing.

The scientific community too is showing an increasing interest in finding the cause and the cure for this formidable enemy. Scientists, like members of the lay public, are impressed by the fact that despite the efforts of more than half a century, cancer has resisted the efforts of some of the best minds in the world to learn its mysteries — even while other diseases, like diphtheria, polio, diabetes, smallpox and goitre, have succumbed to some measure of control or prevention.

If more doctors than ever are willing and anxious to devote their energies to a solution for this problem, money must be available to support them while they do it and to pay for the best laboratory facilities and equipment.

We urge the people of this community to support this humanitarian cause. There are few of us who do not know someone who has or had cancer. There are even fewer who would not wish to help bring about the eventual defeat of one of mankind's most stubborn enemies. And we can each play a part by supporting the campaign of the Canadian Cancer Society.

"The human species, according to the best theory I can form of it," said Charles Lamb, "is composed of two distinct races, the men who borrow, and the men who lend."

A Letter To The Editor

been so good without the new back drop. Mrs. Gordon Bailey and her team worked many out-of-school hours to have that masterpiece ready. I could go on and on but in the last report, it is the public that spells the success of the show. If the audience comes with an open mind, and is ready to sympathize with the players, success is assured. This was certainly the case with the audiences who came to the Stirling Theatre on March 17th, 18th and 20th.

So although credit is given to me as Director, success would be impossible without the assistance of so many, and to all of these — the Principal and Staff of the school, actors, stage-crow, off-stage helpers, the Rotary Club for use of their spotlight, Messrs. Glendinning and McArton for their technical help, Mrs. Glendinning and others for their constructive suggestions, the News-Argus and CJBQ for their publicity, the members of the orchestra, Messrs. George Noble and Bob Patterson for the sale of tickets, and the public who attended — I offer my heart-felt thanks.

If conditions warrant it in the future, I shall do my utmost to present another such show.

Yours sincerely,
Edgar C. Hay-Ellis

The Boy Friend

(By Anne Reid)

Anyone on the streets of Stirling between the Theatre, and the High School during the noon hour of the weeks of March 10th and 17th, would have been very apt to meet an onslaught of students, munching their last bite of lunch. The secret of their activities has now been revealed and is disclosed in the following recipe:

1. Combine giggling girls and marriage-minded young men;

2. Add a wistful love-story between a wealthy heir (Ron Heath) working as a messenger boy and a gentle heiress (Linda Weltman) who is not allowed to have a boy friend;

3. Stir in an ageing English flirt (David Bell) who intends to have as much fun with the giggling girls as his wife (Louise Harding) intends him not to have;

4. Mix in the ever-lovely Head Mistress (Carole Burgess) of the Villa Caprice with the unromantic father (Hugh Hoard) of the gentle heiress;

5. Add a pinch of a French Maid (Linda Anne Morrow);

6. Flavour with a group of high-stepping dancers led by Joan Fraser and Harold Saries, and with a melodious singing chorus.

Put these ingredients into the hands of the Chief Cook, Mr. Edgar C. Hay-Ellis, with his various teams consisting of a muscular stage crew headed by Spencer Brown, a peppy orchestra led by Helen Morrow, a talented group of artists of which Mrs. G. Bailey was head. Bake for three months and what do you have? Not Hungarian goulash, but "The Boy Friend," a roaring, swiftly-moving 1920's musical comedy, presented by Stirling High School with huge success.

Letter To The Editor

Box 23, Stirling, Ontario,
March 28th, 1961.

Mr. Tompkins, Editor,
News-Argus,
Stirling, Ontario.

Dear Sir:

Thank you for space in your paper for a letter which concerns two projects carried out this month in the schools of Stirling.

At the secondary school level, the production of "The Boy Friend" was an unqualified success from the director to the usher. I agreed wholeheartedly with the letter of appreciation from parents for this splendid co-operative effort. I am sure the students will share with me the feeling that all of their educational projects are not so satisfying to them personally as the preparation of such a performance must have been. Should the same enthusiastic spirit prevail towards tests after the holidays as was shown in your fine display of artistic talent, teachers and parents will be doubly proud!

At the elementary level, off the press this past week came a publication that merits a great deal of praise for the editor, Miss Marion Camm, and her assistants. I found the edition of the "Stirling Public School Sputnik" both interesting and informative. Here again is seen an instance of teacher-pupil co-operation in an educational and entertaining effort.

Both of the above projects were the result of ability plus initiative. The result was "sell-outs." We can help our own children to develop into more capable citizens by our support of such attempts on the part of our schools. Talent for art, music, drama, dance, or literature, should have opportunity to be expressed. Let's keep the arts alive, and not just shadows all of the time!

Yours very sincerely,
Katherine Pryor
(Mrs. W. C. Pryor)

Cancer's Danger Signs

The Canadian Cancer Society lists these Seven Danger Signals as possible signs of early cancer: (1) Unusual bleeding or discharge; (2) A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere; (3) A sore that does not heal; (4) Persistent changes in bowel or bladder habits; (5) Persistent hoarseness or cough; (6) Persistent indigestion or difficulty in swallowing; (7) Change in a wart or mole. These signs do not always mean cancer but if you see them, see your doctor. If they are caused by cancer, early treatment is essential.
